PREFACE

The collection of hymns in this book is presented as especially suited to the instincts, aptitudes and needs of young hearts and minds. It offers opportunity for the cultivation of the religious elements in the natures of young people and for the expression of their own distinctive qualities. It brings to them their heritage of great lyrics of the church. It contains a wide range of hymns expressive of modern religious ideals, such as brotherhood and service, world fellowship, social justice, democracy, peace. The touchstones for choice for this limited selection out of the multitude of acceptable hymns have been religious and literary excellence, and the picturesque, sturdy, spirited and joyous qualities that appeal to the spirit of youth.

The music to which these hymns have been set has been carefully studied, that in each case it may suitably interpret the words. Occasionally a familiar setting has been discarded in favor of one of greater musical excellence. The slight effort needed to teach and to learn the new tune will be abundantly rewarded. Tunes have been repeated when they are suited to another set of words, thus giving to favorite melodies a wider use. The inclusion in the special services of some music which has grown familiar during the rest of the year, lessens the amount of preparation needed for the yearly festivals.

The music in this book is offered with confidence as that which affords at once a high average of excellence and a popular appeal. Both musicians and untrained lovers of music can sing it with satisfaction. The use by children and young people of good music will, it is believed, diminish the desire for weak and sentimental melodies as hymn settings, and that through familiarity with what is excellent, inferior music will lose its attraction.

The services for worship and the service outlines present an order that seeks to combine liturgical beauty with the spirit of free religious expression. They present a single theme to the young mind at worship, so that the idea given worthy form in Scripture and hymns may awaken genuine religious emotions. Variety is secured by the selection of several hymns, any one of which is suitable to the theme, by the form (unison, responsive or antiphonal) of the readings, by a choice between two readings or prayers offered, and portions that may be used at one time and omitted at another. The services are designed to develop the spirit of reverence, cultivate the sense of values and the power of choice, and arouse the will to do. They are composite, containing elements tested by use in church schools in various parts of the country. They are enriched by the utterance of devout souls in many lands and times.

PREFACE

The outlines are intended especially for the one who leads the service and so trains the devotional life of children and young people. They show how different phases of a theme may be carried through a series of services. They point out ways of using the "Service Elements" in preparing orders of worship on other topics than those here offered. In this way the worship of our churches and church schools may be enriched by contributions from individuals and groups, and the free spirit at worship may find its own expression and develop forms suited to present needs.

If the editor's aim has been in any measure attained, there will be found in these services and hymns some of the treasures of the world's devotion fitted to present ideas and ideals in religion. It is hoped that this book reflects a high tide of religious experience; a noble expression of the spirit of great souls.

The editor closes her work on The Beacon Hymnal with a prayer that these services and hymns may bring to young hearts added sincerity and joy in worship, and new consecration to world fellowship and social justice as the highest expression of the spirit of good will.

FLORENCE BUCK,
Editor.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The editor acknowledges with thanks the permissions granted by authors and publishers for the use of hymns, tunes, and quotations. Copyright notice for words of hymns and for tunes appears at the foot of the page in the hymn section and in the indexes; for quotations, in the Index of Authors.

Every effort has been made to trace the ownership of copyright material and to secure permission for its use. If such recognition and permission has inadvertently been omitted, acknowledgment will be made, upon notification, in later editions.

The selection of hymns for this book was begun by a representative committee of eight members, of whom the editor was one, and in its final form the book has had the approval of that committee. Two of its members, Rev. Walter S. Swisher and Mr. William A. Weston, are trained and gifted musicians. Mr. Swisher has composed the music for four of the hymns and given counsel on the selection of hymns and tunes. Mr. Weston brought to the assistance of the editor his musical ability and training, and his wide experience as leader of music in our churches and church schools and of choruses of young voices. To his careful oversight, suggestion, and approval, and to his generous gift of his time and training, the musical excellence of this hymnal is largely due.

A sub-committee of three members was appointed on the service section of the book. The selection and arrangement of the Bible readings and part of the prayers in the "Service Elements" are their contribution. To all these helpers, and especially to the musical advisers, whose work far exceeded committee sessions, the thanks of the editor are extended. She is deeply conscious, also, of indebtedness to other makers of hymn books, and to that vast number of men and women whose prayer and praise have enriched the devotional life of the world.

SERVICES OF WORSHIP AND SERVICE OUTLINES

1. THE DAY SET APART

¶ To open the service, one or more of the following hymns may be sung:

- No. 4. When morning gilds the skies.
- No. 14. Lord, this day thy children meet.
- No. 17. We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing.
- No. 23. Bring, O morn, thy music.
- No. 41. O life, that maketh all things new.

(Or any processional hymn desired.)

¶ After the opening hymn or hymns, announce the number and title of the service of worship and proceed in the following order:

Call to Worship.

(Seated)

LEADER. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name.

Bring an offering and come into his courts.

Psalm 90: 8.

ASSEMBLY. The Lord is in his holy temple;

Let all the earth keep silence before him.

Habakkuk 2: 20.

Invocation.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

¶ To be said in unison.

Open wide the windows of our spirits, and fill us full of light;

Open wide the doors of our hearts, that we may receive and entertain thee with all our powers of adoration and love.¹ Amen.

Doxology.

This is the day which the Lord hath made,

We will rejoice and be glad in it.

Psalm 118.: 24.

Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Exodus 20: 8.

We are here to learn how to keep this day and all days holy.

Jesus said, The hour cometh and now is, when true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

John 4: 23.

We worship the Father as he taught us:—God is Spirit: and they that worship must worship in spirit and in truth.

John 4: 24.

Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is,

Hebrew 10: 25.

We will keep this place sacred so that we may learn to find many places sacred, and say of them all, Surely the Lord is in this place. This is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

Genesis 28: 16, 17.

Our Worship Pledge: (In unison.)

(Standing)

I will praise thee, O Lord, with my whole heart;

I will show forth all thy marvellous works.

I will be glad and rejoice in thee;

I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most high.

Psalm 9: 2, 3.

Hymn Response:

WILLIAM KETHE, 1561. Psalm 100.
Abridged

Old Hundredth. L. M.

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him and rejoice.

For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

Call to Prayer. (By the Leader.)

Let us search and try our ways and turn unto the Lord.

Prayer.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

¶ In unison.

In thy wisdom and justice, O Father, thou hast given to us this special day in which to rest, to enjoy our beautiful world, to think of thee and all whom thou dost love. Forgive us, we pray thee, that so often in carelessness and selfishness we forget thee. On this holy day speak to our hearts and help us to remember the countless blessings thou hast prepared for our good. May this be a day which we shall spend as Jesus did, worshiping thee in thy holy temple, walking through fields and by the lake, talking of thee, doing good to all who need our help. Forbid that through our selfishness the day should be hard for others. Teach us to be considerate, kind, and just, doing unto others on this day as on all days as we would that they should do unto us.

Accept, we pray, the worship of loving hearts and devotion of daily lives in which we remember others and forget ourselves.² Amen.

Offertory Service.

RESPONSE. (Music as above.)

Alleluia, all these shall sing
To God, our King, Alleluia!

LEADER. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
And into his courts with praise:
Give thanks unto him, and bless his name.

RESPONSE. (Music as before.)

Alleluia, we too will sing
To God, our King, Alleluia!

Call to Prayer.

Let us search and try our ways, and turn unto the Lord.

Prayer.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

Lord of our hearts and lives, we are met together here to pledge ourselves anew in loyalty to this school, to this church, to all that is right and true. May thy blessing rest upon each heart. May thy Spirit quicken each mind. May thy truth and goodness consecrate every soul.

LEADER. May we all be loyal to ideals of life which heroic lives reveal.

ASSEMBLY. Help us to be loyal, O God.

LEADER. May we be faithful to our school and the truth it teaches.

ASSEMBLY. Help us to be faithful, O God.

LEADER. May we be reverent in the presence of all that is worthy of reverence.

ASSEMBLY. Help us to be reverent, O God.

LEADER. May we give ourselves in love and service as followers of him who came not to be ministered unto but to minister.

ASSEMBLY. Help us to love and serve in the spirit of Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Service of Consecration.

TEACHERS' PLEDGE.

(Teachers standing)

Before God and in the presence of this school, I sincerely and reverently pledge myself to discharge the duties that shall devolve upon me as a teacher of the life of love and hope and work, to the best of my ability. I realize that into my care a great and solemn trust has been committed, and I solemnly promise to be my best and give of my best, in the love of truth and in the spirit of Jesus, that together we may grow in worship toward God and in service toward man: may God help me and keep me steadfast.

PUPILS' PLEDGE.

(Pupils standing)

Earnestly and sincerely we pledge ourselves to faith and loyalty toward our school, its officers and teachers; and toward the Church and religious fellowship of which it is a part. We promise to be true to its ideals, to work for its success, and to love the truth that it teaches, that we may learn to do our part in bringing in the Kingdom of God.

HYMN OF CONSECRATION.

(Standing)

¶ Any one of the following:

No. 107. Father in heaven, who lovest all.

No. 116. Take my life and let it be.

No. 117. Lord, speak to me, that I may speak.

No. 118. Now in the days of youth.

No. 141. Eternal One, thou living God.

No. 77. Thou Lord of Hosts, whose guiding hand.

Call to Study.

O Lord, let thy word be a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

Psalm 119: 105.

Response. (Music as before. Chord only.)

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes,
And I shall keep it unto the end.

Psalm 119: 33.

¶ After this Call to Study and Response, the pupils stand a moment in silence and then pass quietly, without music, to their classes.

CLOSING SERVICE

5. GOD REVEALED IN BEAUTY

¶ To introduce the service, use one or more of the following hymns.

- No. 40. For the beauty of the earth.
 No. 34. God of the earth, the sky, the sea.
 No. 38. I sing the mighty power of God.
 No. 49. For autumn's golden days.

¶ After the opening hymn or hymns announce number and title of service and proceed as follows:

Choral Service.

(Seated)

LEADER. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together; for with him is the fountain of life, and in his light shall we see light.

Psalm 34: 3; 36: 9.

Response.

Wor-ship the Lord in the beau-ty of ho - li-ness; Wor-ship the Lord in the Only at last response beau-ty of ho - li-ness; Serve him with glad - ness, all . the earth. A - men.

LEADER. O Lord my God, thou art very great;
 Thou art clothed with honor and majesty:
 Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment;
 Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain.

Psalm 104: 1, 2.

RESPONSE. (Music as above.)

Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness,
 Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness,
 Serve him with gladness, all the earth.

Psalm 96: 9.

LEADER. Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: and yet I say unto you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you?

Matthew 6: 28-30.

RESPONSE.

(Music as before.)

Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness,
Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness,
Serve him with gladness, all the earth. Amen.

Readings.

(Seated)

¶ To be read by leader and assembly alternately.

Learn, O child, the true wisdom.

See yon bush aflame with roses: listen and thou shalt hear how from out it, soft and clear, speaks to thee the Lord Almighty.¹

I cannot ope mine eyes,
But thou art ready there to catch
My morning soul and sacrifice.²

Thou art the sky, O God, and thou art also the nest.

O thou Beautiful! how thy love embraceth the soul with sweet sounds and color and fragrant odors!³

O Beauty, handiwork of the Most High,
Where'er thou art he tells his love to man,
And lo! the day breaks, and the shadows flee.⁴

¶ In unison.

A haze on the far horizon,
The infinite, tender sky,
The ripe, rich tints of the cornfields
And the wild geese sailing high, —
And all over upland and lowland
The charm of the goldenrod, —
Some of us call it Autumn,
And others call it — God.⁵

¶ By the Leader.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

Matthew 7: 7.

Prayer.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

¶ To be read in unison.

Our heavenly Father, thine is the beauty of this fair and friendly day. May all that is beautiful remind us of thee, the Infinite Beauty! May all that is good remind us of thee, the Perfect Goodness! May all that is true lead us to thee, the Source of all truth! Breathe thy loving Spirit on us all, and make thy morning shine within our hearts as in the skies above. Help us to make more beautiful thy day.⁶ Amen.

The Lord's Prayer. Amen.

Prayer-Response. (Music as before. Sung very softly.)

Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness,
Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness:
Serve him with gladness, all the earth.

Offertory Service.

(Seated)

LEADER. Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Matthew 5: 16.

(Offering received. Music.)

Response.

CLOSING SERVICE

Hymn.

¶ One of the following:

No. 97. Walk in the light.

No. 55. Lord of all being, throned afar.

LEADER. Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands, establish thou it.

Psalm 90: 17.

Benediction.

(Standing, with heads bowed)

¶ To be read by leader or minister, or in unison.

O God, thou who revealest thyself, whose abode is in the white light of heaven:

In beauty may we walk with thee, as becometh children of the light.

With beauty before us do thou cause us to go forward,

With beauty behind us do thou cause us to go forward,

With beauty beneath us do thou cause us to go forward,

With beauty high above us do thou cause us to go forward,

With beauty enfolding us all about do thou cause us to go forward

In the path appointed unto us of thee.

For all things soever that were, are made perfect only of thee in blessed beauty,

Whatso now hath his being is perfecting in beauty,

And all that shall be, will be made perfect in beauty,

Yea, all things are made perfect of thee in thine exceeding beauty,

O glorious God of light.⁷

No. 16. With happy voices ringing.

No. 22. Holy, holy, holy.

No. 25. Let us with a gladsome mind.

No. 27. O worship the King.

No. 26. Praise to God, immortal praise.

¶ After the hymn or hymns, announce number and page of this service and proceed in the following order:

Call to Worship.

(Seated)

¶ To be said in unison.

Praise ye the Lord.

Praise, O ye servants of the Lord,

Praise ye the name of the Lord

From this time forth and forevermore.

From the rising of the sun

Unto the going down of the same

The Lord's name is to be praised.

Psalms 113: 1-3.

Invocation.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

With a song of gladness we come into thy presence, O Lord our God.
May thy praise be in our hearts and thoughts as we remember thy blessings to us. May we be a blessing to others, and so help to show thy love in the world. Amen.

Hymn of Praise.

(Standing)

(One stanza only; music, No. 4.)

When morning gilds the skies

My heart awaking cries

Thy name, O God, be praised.

Alike at work and prayer

To thee do I repair,

Thy name, O God, be praised.

Antiphonal Reading.

(Seated)

Hymn of Praise.

(Second stanza, No. 4. Chord only.)

In heaven's eternal bliss
The loveliest strain is this,
Thy name, O God, be praised.
Let earth and sea and sky
From depth to height reply,
Thy name, O God, be praised.

Scripture Reading.

¶ By the Leader, or someone selected for the purpose.

Rejoice in the Lord. Philippians 4: 4-7, 10-13, 18-20. American Revised Version.

Hymn of Praise.

(Third stanza, No. 4. Chord only.)

Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle divine,
Thy name, O God, be praised.
Be this th' eternal song
Through all the ages long,
Thy name, O God, be praised.

Call to Prayer.

(Seated)

LEADER. Remember our numberless blessings,
Our part in the beauty and light and the infinite heaven of stars;
Our part in the day and night and the rolling seasons;
Our part in the past and in all that the years have brought;
Our part in our country's power and peace;
The safety in which our feet have walked;
The health of our wonderful bodies;
The blessedness of our homes;
The joys of fathers and mothers and children;
Think, if we can, of the numberless blessings
Amid which we live and move and have our being.

Prayer.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

Our Father in Heaven, for all thy gifts we thank thee.
May our praise to thee make our lives happy, so that we learn to enjoy what we have, and know these blessings as thy gift. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer. Amen.

Offertory Service.

(Seated)

LEADER. It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Acts 20: 35.

(Offering received. Music.)

RESPONSE. (To be said in unison.)

Of thine own we offer,
Of thy gifts we give Unto thee, O Father,
In whose life all live.

Story-Talk. (Suited to the theme of the service.)

(Tune, St. Oswald, No. 61.)

Praise the Lord! ye heavens, adore him,
 Praise him, angels, in the height;
 Sun and moon, rejoice before him,
 Praise him, all ye stars of light:

Praise the Lord, for he hath spoken;
 Worlds his mighty voice obeyed;
 Laws, which never shall be broken,
 For their guidance he hath made.

Praise the Lord! for he is glorious;
 Never shall his promise fail;
 God hath made his saints victorious,
 Sin and death shall not prevail.

Praise the God of our salvation;
 Hosts on high, his power proclaim!
 Heaven and earth, and all creation,
 Praise and magnify his name.

CLOSING SERVICE

¶ One of the following:

No. 18. On our way rejoicing.

No. 20. Children of the heavenly King.

LEADER. Let us declare five elements of our faith.

ASSEMBLY. The Fatherhood of God,
 The Brotherhood of Man,
 The Leadership of Jesus,
 Salvation by Character,
 The Progress of Mankind onward and upward forever.

LEADER. The Lord bless thee, and keep thee; the Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee; the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. Amen.

Numbers 6: 24-26.

10. GRATITUDE FOR OUR FAITH

Hymn. The Pioneers of Faith.

(Standing)

(To be sung to Truro, No. 77.)

Like pilgrims sailing through the night
In search of shores more wide and free,
A dauntless few, they went apart
To gain a grander liberty.

The living seed they planted then
Has known the increase of the years,
And now a harvest-time has come;
We garner in the precious ears.

O thou, who led'st the founders on
In paths untrod and trouble-fraught,
Help us with fervor to enlarge
The liberty for which they wrought.¹

¶ By the Leader, or one chosen to read.

The commission to share our faith. Matthew 28: 16-18 (R.V.).

The cruse that failed not, because shared. I Kings 17: 8-16.

Readings.

Giving ourselves: —

Not what we give, but what we share, —
For the gift without the giver is bare;
Who gives himself with his alms feeds three, — Himself, his hungering neighbor, and me.¹

Increase by sharing: —

But all the bread I have
I share, and ever pray
Tomorrow shall bring more
To give away.²

Prayer.

¶ This, to be said in unison:

Dear Lord, help us to share
All that we have, and are.³ Amen.

¶ Or this:

O Lord, who though thou wast rich, yet for our sake didst become poor, and hast promised in thy gospel that whatsoever is done unto the least of thy brethren, thou wilt receive as done unto thee; give us grace, we humbly beseech thee, to be ever willing and ready to minister, as thou enablest us, to the necessities of our fellow creatures, and to extend the blessings of thy kingdom over all the world.⁴ Amen.

12. GIVE THANKS AND SING

Thanksgiving

Opening Hymn.

(Marching or standing)

¶ Any one of the following:

No. 198. Come, ye thankful people, come.

No. 51. We plough the fields, and scatter.

No. 26. Praise to God, immortal praise.

Call to Worship.

(Standing)

LEADER. Serve the Lord with gladness:

Come before his presence with singing;

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving

And into his courts with praise:

Give thanks unto him, and bless his name.

Psalm 100: 2, 4

ASSEMBLY. We will give thanks unto our God;

For the Lord is good;

His lovingkindness endureth forever,

And his faithfulness unto all generations.

Psalm 100: 5.

Hymn.

(Standing)

(No. 199. First stanza only.)

Praise to God and thanks we bring, —

Hearts, bow down, and voices, sing!

Praises to the Glorious One,

All his year of wonder done!

Praise him for his budding green,

April's resurrection-scene;

Praise him for his shining hours,

Starring all the land with flowers!

Scripture.

Nature's Harvest

¶ To be read by Leader or someone chosen.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,

And forget not all his benefits:

* Psalm 103: 2.

He sendeth forth springs into the valleys:

They run among the mountains,

They give drink to every beast of the field.

By them the birds of the heavens have their habitation,
 They sing among the branches. Psalm 104: 10-12.
 The young lions roar after their prey,
 And seek their food from God.
 Yonder is the sea, great and wide,
 Wherein are things creeping innumerable,
 Both small and great beasts. Psalm 104: 21, 25.
 He watereth the mountains,
 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle
 And herb for the service of man,
 That he may bring forth food out of the earth,
 And bread that strengtheneth man's heart. Psalm 104: 13-15.
 Man goeth forth unto his work
 And to his labor until the evening. Psalm 104: 23.
 The hills are girded with joy,
 The pastures are clothed with flocks;
 The valleys also are covered over with grain;
 They shout for joy; they also sing. Psalm 65: 12, 13.

¶ To be read in unison.

O Lord, how manifold are thy works!
 In wisdom hast thou made them all:
 The earth is full of thy riches.
 I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live:
 I will sing praise to my God while I have any being. Psalm 104: 24, 33-34.
 I will rejoice in the Lord.
 Bless the Lord, O my soul. Psalm 104: 1.

The Spiritual Harvest

¶ To be read by Leader or another chosen.

And Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were distressed and scattered, as sheep not having a shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into his harvest. Matthew 9: 35-38.

Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are white already unto harvest. He that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice. John 4: 35-36.

And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed upon the earth; and should sleep and rise, night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he knoweth not how. The earth beareth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. But when the fruit is ripe, straightway he putteth forth the sickle, because the harvest is come.

Mark 4: 26-29.

He that supplieth seed to the sower and bread for food, shall supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness: which worketh through us thanksgiving to God.

II Corinthians 9: 10, 11.

Hymn Response.

(Standing)

(No. 199. Second stanza. Chord only.)

Praise him for his summer rain,
Feeding day and night the grain,
Praise him for his tiny seed,
Holding all his world shall need;
Praise him for his garden root,
Meadow grass and orchard fruit;
Praise for hills and valleys broad,
Each the table of the Lord!

Ancient Chant.

(Standing)

¶ To be read responsively.

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good;

For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.

O give thanks unto the God of gods;

For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.

O give thanks to the Lord of lords;

For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.

To him who alone doeth great wonders;

For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.

To him that by understanding made the heavens;

For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.

To him that spread forth the earth above the waters;

For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.

To him that made great lights;
For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.
 The sun to rule by day;
For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.
 The moon and stars to rule by night;
For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.
 O give thanks unto the God of heaven;
For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.

Psalms 136: 1-9, 26.

Hymn Response.

(Standing)

(No. 199. Third stanza. To be sung softly, as introduction to prayer.)

Praise him now for snowy rest,
 Falling soft on nature's breast;
 Praise for happy dreams of birth,
 Brooding in the quiet earth!
 For his year of wonder done,
 Praise to the All-glorious One!
 Hearts, bow down, and voices, sing
 Praise, and love, and thanksgiving!

Prayer.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

A Litany of Thankfulness

¶ The Thanksgiving prayer, No. XXIV, on p. 117 may be substituted for this litany if desired.

For the gift of life in this wonderful world; for days of health and for nights of quiet sleep,

We thank thee, our Father.

For the beautiful face of the year; for the glory of the seasons and the sure and bountiful harvests,

We thank thee, our Father.

For our homes and our friends, for the humble, the faithful, and the loving people of the world,

We thank thee, our Father.

For the faith that makes us faithful, for thy gifts to every child of earth, for the privilege of sharing what we receive and helping others to obtain their share of thy bounty,

We thank thee, our Father.

For the good at the heart of our world; for faith in the Eternal Goodness; for all the gladness of life and for the heart's assurance of life eternal in thee, we bless thee and thank thee, O God of our joy.¹ Amen.

Prayer Hymn.

(Standing)

(Music, No. 201.)

O Father, thou who givest all
The bounty of thy perfect love,
We thank thee that upon us fall
Such tender blessings from above.

We thank thee for the grace of home,
For mother's love and father's care;
For friends and teachers — all who come
Our joys and hopes and fears to share.

For eyes to see and ears to hear,
For hands to serve and arms to lift,
For shoulders broad and strong to bear,
For feet to run on errands swift.

For faith to conquer doubt and fear,
For love to answer every call,
For strength to do, and will to dare,
We thank thee, O thou Lord of all.

Offertory Service.

LEADER. Freely ye have received, freely give.

¶ Gifts of fruit and vegetables, or other food, as well as money, may be received at this time, members of the school marching forward to present their gifts. Instrumental music, or a processional hymn (No. 200), or the reading of Scripture sentences (V, p. 104) should be used during the offering, to further maintain the spirit of reverence, gratitude, and good will.

RESPONSE.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

¶ To be said in unison.

Bless thou the gifts our hands have brought,
Bless thou the work our hearts have planned,
Ours is the faith, the will, the thought,
The rest, O God, is in thy hand.² Amen.

Story-Talk. (Suited to Thanksgiving.)

Hymn.

(Standing)

¶ May be used as a recessional.

No. 119. Rejoice, ye pure in heart.

CLOSING SERVICE

Hymn.

(Standing)

No. 200. Now thank we all our God.

LEADER. While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

Genesis 8: 22.

Closing Prayer.

(Standing, with bowed heads)

¶ To be said in unison.

O God, we thank thee for everything:

For the glory and beauty and wonder of the world,

For the glory of springtime, the tints of the flowers and their fragrance;

For the glory of the summer flowers, the roses and cardinals and clethra;

For the glory of the autumn, the scarlet and crimson and gold of the forest;

For the glory of winter, the pure snow on the shrubs and trees.

We thank thee that thou hast placed us here

To use thy gifts for the good of all.³ Amen.

THE CHRISTMAS CYCLE

(Services 13 to 17.)

The Sundays preceding Christmas are here treated as part of that Festival season. Preparation for the special Christmas service can best be made by using services of worship that give the needed instruction and practice.

The hymns and carols used in Services 13-16 should be the ones selected in advance for the Christmas-pageant service. These may be varied and added to, year by year, giving needed variety. Notice that the Luke stories (shepherds and angels) and the Matthew story (wise-men and star) are kept separate in the pre-Christmas services, and their use at different times gives a more thorough and accurate knowledge of the content of each Gospel.

It is not possible to use four pre-Christmas services after Thanksgiving when the fourth Sunday is taken for the Christmas service; but week-day schools of religion, and a special Sunday hour for the pageant service, or a service on Christmas Day, will give opportunity for their use. Service 15 or 16 may be used for the Christmas service in places where Service 17 is found too long or too elaborate.

13. THE GREAT EXPECTATION

Opening Hymn.

(Standing)

No. 203. O come, O come, Emmanuel.

(The refrain of this hymn is to be sung as the response in the responsive reading.)

Responsive Reading.

(Seated)

LEADER. The voice of one that crieth,

Prepare ye in the wilderness the way of the Lord;

Make level in the desert a highway for our God.

Isaiah 40: 3.

ASSEMBLY. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plain; and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

Isaiah 40: 4, 5.

Response.

¶ To be sung. Chord only. Music as before.

Rejoice, rejoice, Emmanuel

Shall come to thee, O Israel.

LEADER. Thus hath the Lord said unto me, Go, set a watchman; let him declare what he seeth. Isaiah 21: 6.

O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion, get thee up on a high mountain; Isaiah 40: 9.

ASSEMBLY. O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God. Isaiah 40: 9.

¶ To be read by a single voice, not the Leader:

WATCHMAN. I stand continually upon the watch-tower in the day-time, and am set in my ward whole nights. The morning cometh, and also the night; if ye will inquire, inquire ye; turn ye, come. Isaiah 21: 8, 12.

ASSEMBLY. Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night? Isaiah 21: 11.

WATCHMAN. The morning cometh. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem; for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. Isaiah 52: 9.

Response. (Music as before.)

Rejoice, rejoice, Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

LEADER. The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwelt in the land of the deep darkness, upon them hath the light shined. Isaiah 9: 3.

ASSEMBLY. Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem; and cry unto her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned. Isaiah 40: 1, 2.

WATCHMAN. Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. And nations shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Isaiah 60: 1, 3.

ASSEMBLY. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of government and of peace there shall be no end, upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from henceforth even for ever. Isaiah 9: 6, 7.

Response. (Music as before.)

Rejoice, rejoice, Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

Hymn.

(Standing)

¶ To be sung antiphonally, if desired.

No. 204. Watchman, tell us of the night.

Call to Prayer.

LEADER. Let us lift up our hearts unto God.

Prayer.

Hymn.

(Standing)

No. 207. Joy to the world! the Lord is come.

(or) No. 205. O come, all ye faithful.

Reading.

THE KINGS AND THE STAR

LEADER. The Kings of the East are riding
Tonight to Bethlehem.
The sunset glows dividing,
The Kings of the East are riding;
A star their journey guiding,
Beaming with gold and gem.
The Kings of the East are riding
Tonight to Bethlehem.¹

Carol.

No. 229. We three Kings of Orient are.

(First stanza and refrain.)

Scripture.

(Seated)

The Wise Men from the East. Matthew 2: 1-8.

Carol.

No. 229. We three Kings of Orient are.

(Last stanza and refrain.)

Scripture.

The Star in the East. Matthew 2: 9, 10.

Response: (All sing.) Refrain, No. 229.

O star of wonder, star of night,
Star with royal beauty bright,
Westward leading, still proceeding,
Guide us to thy perfect light.

Carol.

No. 219. As with gladness men of old.

Scripture.

(Seated)

Gifts of the Wise Men. Matthew 2: 11-12.

LEADER. We would see Jesus, lo, his star is shining
Above the stable while the angels sing;
There in a manger on the hay reclining,
Haste, let us lay our gifts before the King.²

Carol.

No. 208. Christians, lo, the star appeareth.

Call to Prayer.

LEADER. Let us search and try our ways, and turn unto the Lord.

Lamentations 3: 40.

Prayer.

Our Father, help us, like the wise men of old, to follow the star of our faith wherever it may lead. May the spirit of cheer and hope, of love and service, possess our hearts. May we not forget, O loving Father, that there are some children in the world who will have no Christmas joy and good cheer and comfort unless we bring it to them. May our gifts to them be offerings to thee, in return for thy Christmas gift to the world of our Leader, Jesus, whom, not having seen, we love. Amen.

17. JOY TO THE WORLD

A Pageant Service for Christmas

(It is hoped that this service may be given with stereopticon slides representing the scenes, or with a symbolic service presented by young people. Directions for such presentation while the reading and carol-singing go on may be secured from the publishers of this book. When such visualizations are not possible, the readings may be given by the assembly in unison, or by individuals chosen for the purpose. The carols to be used should be selected and learned, if possible by heart, before the service is given.)

Processional Hymn.

(Marching; standing)

No. 205. O come, all ye faithful.

Invocation.

¶ To be said by the Leader.

(Standing, with bowed heads)

All the earth rejoices in the gladness of good will, and, everywhere, men's hungry hearts await the word of peace. May we be messengers of Christmas joy to the world, bearers of its glad tidings, servants of its gracious spirit, and toilers for its lasting good will. May there be nothing selfish in our Christmas rejoicings, but may we ever seek to bring to all mankind the happiness we crave for ourselves, and thus learn how much joy there is in giving.¹

¶ In unison: The Lord's Prayer. Amen.

Hymn.

No. 214. To-day be joy in every heart.

(or) No. 223. Little children, wake and listen.

Scene I. THE LITTLE TOWN ASLEEP.

It came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be enrolled. And all went to enroll themselves, every one to his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, to be enrolled with Mary his wife.

Luke 2: 1, 3-5.

Carol. No. 226. O little town of Bethlehem.

Scene II. (a) THE SHEPHERDS.

And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flocks.

Luke 2: 8.

Carol. No. 225. Shepherds, shake off your drowsy sleep.

(b) THE HERALD ANGEL AND HEAVENLY HOST.

And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and they were sore afraid.

Luke 2: 9.

Carol. No. 231. The first Nowell the angels did say.

(First stanza only.)

And the angel said unto them, Fear not; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

Luke 2: 10.

Carol. No. 209. Calm on the listening ear of night.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

Luke 2: 13-14.

Carol. No. 227. Angels we have heard on high.

(or) No. 211. Hark! the herald angels sing.

Scene III. MOTHER AND CHILD.

(Organ plays Silent Night very softly, or the carol may be sung by choir.)

And so it was, that while Joseph and Mary were in Bethlehem, Mary brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

Luke 2: 6-7.

Carol. No. 213. In stable lowly.

(or) No. 216. The night was dark and stormy.

Scene IV. THE SHEPHERDS' QUEST.

And the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

Luke 2: 15, 16.

Carol. No. 221. Come, all ye shepherds.

Scene V. THE WISE MEN AND THE STAR.

(Organ plays refrain of We Three Kings, No. 229.)

Behold, there came also wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him. And lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

Matthew 2: 1-2, 9-10.

Carol. No. 229. We three kings of Orient are.
(First stanza and refrain.)

And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

Matthew 2: 11.

Carol. (Refrain of We Three Kings:)

O star of wonder, star of night,
Star with royal beauty bright,
Westward leading, still proceeding,
Guide us to thy perfect light.

LEADER. God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

II Corinthians 4: 6.

Hymn.

No. 208. Christians, lo, the star appeareth.

Offertory Service. As in Service 13.

Prayer.

(Seated, with bowed heads, or kneeling)

(By the Leader.)

O God, our Father, we thank thee for the joy that came into the world when Jesus was born in Bethlehem. We thank thee that light sprang up then for those that sat in darkness, and that this light and joy are in our homes to-day because of him. Let us not crowd him out of our lives because there is no room for him there, but may we welcome him as the Christmas gift of God's love, so that he may always stay with us and make our lives what God would have them be. We come to thee with sorrow for the children to-day who are cold and sick and starving and helpless. Send them deliverance and cheer, we pray thee, through us and others like ourselves, who would spread the Christ spirit in the world. May the peace and good will that Jesus came to bring, spring up among the nations everywhere. And may thy kingdom come, and thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.² Amen.

Hymn.

No. 207. Joy to the world! the Lord is come.

Benediction.

May joy and peace be in your hearts, and in the world through you and all followers of the Prince of Peace, now and always. Amen.

18. ALL THINGS NEW

New Year

Hymn.

No. 232. Another year is dawning.

Call to Worship. No. 8, p. 101.

Responsive Reading. No. IV, p. 104.

Scripture. All things new. Revelation 21: 1-7.

Reading.

¶ By the Leader, or one chosen for the purpose.

‘Behold’ — in vision said
The Voice to John on Patmos,
‘I make all things new!’
Vanish before his view
The earth and heavens old;
In splendor manifold
New heavens and earth appear
To the enraptured seer:
‘Behold, I make all things new!’
Write: for faithful are these words, and true.’

So speaks to thee, O heart,
As the swift years depart,
The re-creating Voice.
Open thine eyes to see
The good in store for thee, —
New love, new thought, new service too,
For him who daily maketh thy life new.¹

Prayer. No. IX, p. 114.

Response. From Service 5, p. 11.

Worship Pledge. As in Service I, p. 2.

19. THE CLEAN, STRONG LIFE

Opening Hymn.

(Marching or standing)

¶ One or more of the following may be sung:

No. 118. Now in the days of youth.

No. 102. Go forth to life, O child of earth.

No. 100. God of the earnest heart.

Sentences.

(Standing)

LEADER. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord,
Or who shall stand in his holy place?

ASSEMBLY. He that hath clean hands and a pure heart;
Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity,
And hath not sworn deceitfully.
He shall receive a blessing from the Lord,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

Psalm 24: 3-5.

The Lord's Prayer.

(Standing)

¶ To be said in unison.

Scripture Reading.

(Seated)

¶ To be read by one appointed for the purpose:

Four captive youths who chose the clean, strong life. Daniel 1: 1-19.

Better when slightly simplified and abridged. See the version in The Children's Bible, p. 158.

Our Pledge.

¶ This is to be recited in unison, or, if preferred, sung. (No. 101.)

I would be true, for there are those who trust me;

I would be pure, for there are those who care;

I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;

I would be brave, for there is much to dare.

I would be friend of all — the foe, the friendless;

I would be giving, and forget the gift;

I would be humble, for I know my weakness;

I would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift.

¶ Or this:

My body is the temple of my soul.

Therefore:

I will keep my body clean within and without.

I will breathe pure air and I will live in the sunlight.

I will do no act that might endanger the health of others.

I will try to learn and practice the rules of healthy living.

I will work and rest and play at the right time and in the right way, so that my mind will be strong and my body healthy, and so that I shall lead a useful life and be an honor to my parents, to my friends, and to my country.¹

Call to Prayer.

(Seated)

Let us seek health, strength, and purity of body, mind, and soul.

Prayer.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

¶ This, to be said in unison.

Life of my life, I shall ever try to keep my body pure, knowing that thy living touch is upon all my limbs.

I shall ever try to keep all untruths out from my thoughts, knowing that thou art that truth which has kindled the light of reason in my mind.

I shall ever try to drive all evils away from my heart and keep my love in flower, knowing that thou hast thy seat in the inmost shrine of my heart.

And it shall be my endeavor to reveal thee in my action, knowing it is thy power gives me strength to act.²

¶ Or this:

Give me clean hands, clean words, and clean thoughts. Help me to stand for the hard right against the easy wrong.

Save me from the habits that harm.

Teach me to work as hard and play as fair in thy sight alone as if all the world saw.

Forgive me when I am unkind, and help me to forgive those who are unkind to me.

Keep me ready to help others at some cost to myself.

Send me chances to do a little good every day, and to grow more like Christ.³ Amen.

Father in heaven, who lovest all,
O help thy children when they call;
That they may build from age to age
An undefiled heritage.

Teach us to look in all our ends
On thee for Judge and not our friends;
That we, with thee, may walk uncrowded
By fear or favor of the crowd.

Teach us to bear the yoke in youth,
With steadfastness and careful truth;
That, in our time, thy grace may give
The truth whereby the nations live.

Teach us the strength that cannot seek,
By deed or thought, to hurt the weak;
That, under thee, we may possess
Man's strength to comfort man's distress.

Teach us to rule ourselves always,
Controlled and cleanly night and day;
That we may bring, if need arise,
No maimed or worthless sacrifice.

Teach us delight in simple things,
And mirth that has no bitter springs,
Forgiveness free of evil done,
And love to all men 'neath the sun.⁴

Offertory Service.

LEADER. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name. Bring an offering and come into his courts.

I Chronicles 16: 29.

Psalm 96: 8.

(Offering received. Music.)

ASSEMBLY.

Of thine own we offer,
Unto thee, O Father,
In whose life all live. Amen.

Story-Talk. (Suited to the theme of the service.)

Hymn.

(Standing)

¶ One of the following:

No. 92. My soul, be on thy guard.

No. 84. March on, O soul, with strength.

No. 103. Purer yet and purer.

CLOSING SERVICE

Hymn.

(Standing)

¶ The first and last stanzas. (No. 93.)

Father, hear the prayer we offer:

Not for ease that prayer shall be;

But for strength, that we may ever

Live our lives courageously.

Be our strength in hours of weakness;

In our wanderings, be our guide;

Through endeavor, failure, danger,

Father, be thou at our side.

Prayer.

(Standing)

¶ To be said in unison.

I can do all things through him that strengtheneth me. Philippians 4: 10.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit in me. Amen.

Psalm 51: 10.

20. A SERVICE FOR BOYS AND MEN

Reading.

(Seated)

MEDITATION OF A KNIGHT OF GOD, SIR GALAHAD.

My strength is as the strength of ten
Because my heart is pure.

I muse on joy that will not cease,
Pure spaces clothed in living beams,
Pure lilies of eternal peace
Whose odors haunt my dreams.

Then move the trees, the copses nod,
Wings flutter, voices hover clear:
O just and faithful knight of God!
Ride on! the prize is near!¹

Special Prayer.

(Standing)

¶ To be said in unison by the boys present:

A BOY'S PRAYER.

God, who created me
Nimble and light of limb,
In three elements free
To run, to ride, to swim:
Not when the sense is dim,
But now from the heart of joy,
I would remember him;
Take the thanks of a boy.²

Prayer. No. XXVI, p. 118.

Our Pledge. I would be true. As in Service 19, p. 40.

21. SELF-CONTROL

Service No. 17 may be varied to make self-control its leading thought by the addition or insertion of the following Service-elements.

Hymn.

(Standing)

¶ One of the following:

No. 100. God of the earnest heart.

No. 151. Press on, press on, ye sons of light.

Opening Sentences.

(Seated)

LEADER. Let us fight the good fight of him who strives for self-mastery.

ASSEMBLY. I will seek to win the noble victory of one who conquers himself.

LEADER. Who liveth bravely?

ASSEMBLY. He who fears nothing but to do wrong.

LEADER. Who liveth greatly?

ASSEMBLY. He who adorns each day with victories over himself.

LEADER. Who liveth in freedom?

ASSEMBLY. He who learns to do easily what at first was hard, — because it makes for the welfare of others.¹

IN UNISON. Self-reverence, self-knowledge, self-control,
These three alone lead life to sovereign power.²

Reading.

(Seated)

¶ By the Leader.

Take Temperance to thy breast
While yet is the hour of choosing;
An arbitress exquisite
Of all that shall thee betide.
For better than fortune's best
Is mastery in the using,
And sweeter than all things sweet
The art to lay it aside.³

Call to Prayer.

(Seated)

LEADER. The Lord be with you.

RESPONSE. And with thy spirit.

LEADER. Let us pray.

Prayer.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

LEADER. O Lord, show thy mercy upon us,

RESPONSE. And grant us thy salvation.

LEADER. O Lord, make clean our hearts within us,

RESPONSE. And take not thy holy Spirit from us.

¶ In unison.

O God our Strength, may we keep ourselves pure from all that stains or corrupts these bodies, thy holy temple. May we so eat and drink, so work and play and rest, that we may be strong to do our part. Help us, we ask, to learn how to control our desires, our temper, our tongues, that by mastery of self we may learn to live worthily as followers of Jesus. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer. Amen.

Motto.

(Seated)

¶ To be said in unison.

So nigh is grandeur to our dust,

So near is God to man,

When duty whispers low, Thou must,

The youth replies, *I can.*¹

Prayer.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

For the Voice within us which bids us do Right, and yet leaves us free,

For our Power to obey the Voice,

For the Angel of Shame that besets us, when we do not obey it, — we thank thee, our Father: the Voice and the Power and the Angel, they all are from thee.

May we learn to say, — What we ought, that we can; what we can, God helping, we will!² Amen.

Scripture. The symbolic city of God. Revelation 21: 10-21.

Prayer.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

O God, we pray thee for this, the city of our love and pride. — Help us to make our city the mighty common workshop of our people, where every one will find his place and task, keen to do his best with hand and mind. Help us to make our city the greater home of our people, where all may live their lives in comfort, unafraid. Grant us a vision of our city, fair as she might be: a city of justice, where none shall prey on others; a city of plenty, where vice and poverty shall cease to fester; a city of brotherhood, where all success shall be founded on service, and honor shall be given to nobleness alone; a city of peace, where order shall not rest on force, but on the love of all for the city, the great mother of the common life and weal. Hear thou, O Lord, the silent prayer of all our hearts as we each pledge our time and strength and thought to speed the day of her coming beauty and righteousness.²

Amen.

¶ To be read by the Leader or some one chosen for the purpose.

Hear the law of the Lord for nations: —

When the righteous are in authority the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn. Proverbs 29: 2.

If thou hearken diligently unto the voice of the Lord thy God, the Lord thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth. Deuteronomy 28: 1.
Proclaim liberty throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof.

Leviticus 25: 10.

Loose the bands of wickedness and undo the heavy burdens.

Let the oppressed go free; break every yoke.

Then shall thy light break forth as the morning,

And thy health shall spring forth speedily;

And thy righteousness shall go before thee,

And the glory of the Lord shall follow thee.

Isaiah 58: 6, 8.

The Lord shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, and walk in his ways.

Deuteronomy 28: 9.

Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

Deuteronomy 28: 3.

Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

Deuteronomy 28: 6.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord.

Psalms 33: 12.

Responsive Reading.

I

We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what works thou didst in their days, in the days of old.

Psalms 44: 1.

Our fathers trusted in thee and thou didst deliver them. They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not put to shame.

Psalms 22: 4, 5.

For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them,

But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou wast favorable unto them.

Psalms 44: 3.

He established a testimony and appointed laws which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children; Psalms 78: 5.

Telling to the generation to come the praises of the Lord, and his strength, and his wondrous works that he hath done.

That the generations to come might know them, even the children that should be born; who should arise and tell them to their children,

That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments; which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

Psalm 78: 4, 6, 7, 3.

The counsel of the Lord standeth fast forever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Psalm 33: 11.

Turn us again, O God; cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved. Quickened thou us, and we will call upon thy name.

Psalm 80: 3, 18.

¶ Or this:

II

This country, with its institutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it.

I look to the great American people, and to that God who has never forsaken them. If we stand firm, we shall not fail.

Our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure.

We here highly resolve that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom,

And that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

¶ To be read in unison.

With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations.¹

Call to Prayer.

LEADER. Pray for the peace of our country.

ASSEMBLY. We pray for the peace of the country we love.

LEADER. Pray for wisdom and justice in our land.

ASSEMBLY. We pray that wisdom and justice may prevail.

The Lord's Prayer.

LEADER.

Almighty God, we thank thee for our country, this great land of hope. May it ever be for all that are oppressed fair freedom's open door.

May our rulers have faith in peace secured through justice, so that our land may be forever free from the crime of war. May peace dwell within our borders, and all who love our country prosper.

May we help to bring in the day when all men shall stand side by side in equal worth and equal freedom, when God's will shall be done in this our land as it is done in heaven. Amen.

Hymn Response.

(Seated)

Tune, America. (Chord only. Sung softly.)

Lord of all truth and right,
In whom alone is might,
On thee we call.
Do thou our country bless
With peace and righteousness,
May we all wrongs redress,
God bless us all.

(Standing)

¶ To be recited in unison.

We will never bring disgrace to this our nation by any act of dishonesty or cowardice. We will respect our nation's laws and obey them, that we may be an example to others. We will seek to make justice, peace, and brotherhood prevail. We will pass on this nation not less, but greater, better, and more beautiful than it came to us.

¶ The salute to the flag, given in unison, may be added if desired:

I pledge allegiance to my flag,
And to the Republic for which it stands;
One nation, indivisible,
With liberty and justice for all.

Hymn.

Tune, Italian Hymn. No. 24.

My country, to thy shore
Far-wandering pilgrims pour
To build in thee
A new republic's plan,
New truth of loftier span,
New brotherhood of man,
And liberty.¹

Sentences.

LEADER. The stranger that sojourneth with you shall be unto you as the home-born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself.

Leviticus 19: 34.

ASSEMBLY. Through tribulations and distress, they come!
Through perils great and bitterness,
Through persecutions pitiless, they come!
They come by paths the martyrs trod,
They come from underneath the rod,
Climbing through the darkness up to God, they come!
Out of mighty tribulation,
With a sound of jubilation,
They come! They come!²

LEADER. And gathered out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the south.

ASSEMBLY. They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way;
They found no city of habitation.

LEADER. Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.

ASSEMBLY. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble,
And he delivered them out of their distresses.

LEADER. He led them also by a straight way,
That they might go to a city of habitation.

ASSEMBLY. O that men would praise the Lord for his lovingkindness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men!
For he satisfieth the longing soul,
And the hungry soul he filleth with good.

Psalm 107: 1-9.

A Prayer for Immigrants.

¶ To be said by the Leader.

O thou great Champion of the outcast and the weak, we remember before thee the people of other nations who are coming to our land, seeking bread, a home, and a future. May we look with thy compassion upon those who have been drained and stunted by the poverty and oppression of centuries, and whose minds have been warped by superstition or seared by the dumb agony of revolt.

We bless thee for all that America has meant to the alien folk that have crossed the sea in the past, and for all the patient strength and God-fearing courage with which they have enriched our nation. We beseech thee that our republic may not fail their trust.

In a nation dedicated to liberty, may they not find the old oppression and a fiercer greed. May they feel here the pure air of freedom and face the morning radiance of a joyous hope.³ Amen.

¶ To be said in unison.

For all the oppressed afar off who sigh for liberty; for all lovers of the people who strive to break their shackles; for all who dare to believe in democracy and the kingdom of God, make thou our commonwealth a sure beacon-light of hope and a guide on the path which leads to the perfect union of law and liberty.³ Amen.

A Psalm for all Nations.

(Standing)

¶ To be said in unison.

God be merciful unto us, and bless us,
And cause his face to shine upon us;
That thy way may be known upon earth,
Thy salvation among all nations.
Let the peoples praise thee, O God;
Let all the peoples praise thee.

Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy;
 For thou wilt judge the peoples with equity,
 And govern the nations upon earth.
 Let the peoples praise thee, O God;
 Let all the peoples praise thee.
 The earth hath yielded its increase;
 God, even our own God, will bless us.
 God will bless us;
 And all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Psalm 67.

Reading. ¶ By the Leader, or someone chosen for the purpose. (Seated)

Let us, then, as a nation, be just — observe good faith towards all nations, cultivate peace and harmony with all, and give to mankind the example of a people always guided by an exalted justice and benevolence.²

In the days to come it will be necessary to lay afresh, and upon a new plan, the foundations of peace among the nations.³

America, rise to your high born part!
 Over all lands a winged hope is flying.
 Yours to shape the mighty deed,
 To build the brother future.

What avail, O builders of the world, unless ye build a safety for the soul?
 It comes! the high inbrothering of men, the new earth seen by John of Patmos,

A testament of brotherhood.⁴

There is an enticing dream: the dream of wise freedom made contagious;
 The dream of nations in love with each other, without a thought of hatred or danger.

Clear the field for the grand tournament of the nations!
 Clear the field for the tournament of man.
 And who will lead the way? The good and wise must lead.
 Let the people love, and they will lead.
 Let the people love, and theirs is the power.⁵

Prayer.

¶ This, to be said in unison.

O thou strong Father of all nations, draw all thy great family together with an increasing sense of our common blood and destiny, that peace may come on earth at last, and thy sun may shed its light rejoicing on a holy brotherhood of peoples.⁶ Amen.

¶ Or this:

Dear God, help us to be friends of children in every land. May we remember that they are thy children as we are, and so with us are part of God's family on earth. Teach us ways in which we may share our best with them, and in knowing them better learn to love them more.

This we ask in the spirit of Jesus, who came a little child to earth to reveal thy love to all peoples. Amen.

Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the evil one.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand.

Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace.

Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

¶ By a single voice.

Faith is always forward-looking. It is a spirit in our hearts which bids us believe that what is right can be brought to pass. It desires a future good which it tries to secure. It gives us confidence in unseen, eternal things. Our Bible says of faith, in the first verse of the eleventh chapter of Hebrews, Now faith is the assurance that we shall receive the things for which we hope, the conviction of the reality of things we do not see. It was because of their faith that men of old were approved unto God; for they dared greatly, and endured as seeing him who is invisible.¹

¶ In unison.

We accept the challenge of faith. We believe that wrong will be overcome, that right will prevail. We will work for the welfare of all our fellow men in confidence and hope. This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

The time of the singing of birds is come. Canticles 2: 11, 12.
Let the heavens rejoice,
And let the earth be glad;
Let the field be joyful,
And let the trees of the wood rejoice. Psalm 96: 11, 12.
Let the floods clap their hands;

Let the hills be joyful together before the Lord Psalm 98: 8, 9.

With thee is the fountain of life. Psalm 36: 9.

Thou givest life forevermore. Psalm 133:3.

Responsive Reading.

LEADER. Who hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters;
Or a way for the lightning of thunder?

ASSEMBLY. To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is;
On the wilderness, where there is no man?

LEADER. To satisfy the desolate and waste ground;
And to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

Job 38: 25-27.
 ASSEMBLY. Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain;
 Psalm 68: 9.
 Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

LEADER. Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it,
Thou greatly enrichest it;
The river of God is full of water.

ASSEMBLY. Thou waterest its furrows abundantly;
Thou makest it soft with showers;
Thou blessest the springing thereof. Psalm 65: 8-10.

¶ In unison.

As the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations. Isaiah 61: 11.

Readings.

Once more the Heavenly Power
 Makes all things new,
 And domes the red-plow'd hills
 With loving blue;
 And thaws the cold, and fills
 The flower with dew.¹
 Fair day of larger light,
 Life's own appointed hour,
 Young souls bud forth in white —
 The world's a-flower;
 Thrill, youthful heart — soar upward, limpid voice;
 Blossoming time is come — rejoice, rejoice, rejoice.²

My heart sings with the robins in the rain,
For I remember it is Easter morn,
And life, and love, and peace are all new-born,
And joy has triumphed over loss and pain.³

Prayer.

(Seated with bowed heads)

¶ To be said by the Leader.

Everything in Nature makes ready for the great awakening. The cold winds cease from blowing, the warm breezes, gentle rains, and radiant sunshine clothe the field and forest with new splendor, and the birds sing again their happy songs. Life is always renewing itself, and we belong to life. May our hearts be glad as we join in Nature's song of praise, and may we strive to be worthy of this great life that out of the old brings forth the new, and that, every Spring, fills the world with new joys and glories. Amen.

32. GOD'S LOVE AND CARE

Hymn.

(Standing)

No. 56. The Lord is my shepherd.

Opening Sentences.

(Seated)

LEADER. God is love; and he that abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth in him.

I John 4: 16.

ASSEMBLY. There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear. We love, because he first loved us.

I John 4: 18, 19.

¶ In unison.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He guideth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou hast anointed my head with oil;

My cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and lovingkindness shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Psalms 23.

Hymn.

(Tune No. 59. First two stanzas.)

The King of love my shepherd is,

Whose goodness faileth never:

I nothing lack if I am his,

And he is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow

My ransomed soul he leadeth,

And where the verdant pastures grow

With food celestial feedeth.

Responsive Reading.

LEADER. O God, thou art my God; earnestly will I seek thee:
My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee,
In a dry and weary land; where no water is.

ASSEMBLY. Because thy lovingkindness is better than life,
My lips shall praise thee.

Psalm 63: 1, 3.

LEADER. The Lord is good to all;
And his tender mercies are over all his works.

Psalm 145: 9.

ASSEMBLY. He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and will gently lead those that have their young.

Isaiah 40: 11.

Hymn. (No. 59. Third and fourth stanzas. Chord only.)

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love he sought me,
And on his shoulder gently laid,
And home rejoicing brought me.
In death's dark vale, I fear no ill
With thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy light before to guide me.

Responsive Reading.

LEADER. Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? Your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.
But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Matthew 6, 31-33.

ASSEMBLY. My God shall supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. Trust in him at all times; casting all your anxiety upon him, because he careth for you.

Philippians 4: 19.

Psalm 62: 8.

1 Peter 5: 7.

Hymn. (No. 59. Fifth and sixth stanzas. Chord only.)

Thou spread'st a table in my sight,
Thy unction grace bestoweth,
And O what transport of delight
From thy pure chalice floweth!
And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise
Within thy house forever.

LEADER. God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. II Corinthians 4: 6.

ASSEMBLY. That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world; and as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God. John 1: 9, 12.

LEADER. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. John 1: 4.

ASSEMBLY. Looking unto Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising shame. Hebrews 12: 2.

LEADER. Because Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God; being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit. I Peter 3: 18.

ASSEMBLY. The Spirit himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him. Romans 8: 16, 17.

Call to Prayer.

LEADER. The Lord be with you.

ASSEMBLY. And with thy spirit.

LEADER. Let us pray.

Prayer.

(Seated, with bowed heads, or kneeling)

LEADER. O Lord, show thy mercy upon us,

ASSEMBLY. And grant us thy salvation.

LEADER. O Lord, make clean our hearts within us.

ASSEMBLY. And take not thy holy spirit from us.

¶ To be said by the Leader.

Bountiful Source of all life, already we seem to feel the inspiring spirit of Easter song and gladness. It tells of new life, larger life, risen life, the life eternal. The sleeping earth shall waken and listen and arise. Sad hearts shall sing, youth and old age shall rejoice together, and the soul of man become more serene. May we welcome the call of Easter, the sacred call which summons us all to deeper faith, larger hope, and wider charity. We ask it all in the name of the Risen Christ.² Amen.

¶ To be repeated after Leader, phrase by phrase, by the Assembly:

O God, Shepherd of our souls,|| who givest us life and all good,|| we rejoice in thy presence,|| we renew our faith in things unseen,|| we lift our hearts to thee.|| Help us to love and seek the best,|| knowing this life to be part of eternity,|| and so to walk amidst the things of time|| that we lose not the things that are eternal.|| May the spirit that was in Jesus|| rise now in all our hearts.|| Amen.

Processional or Opening Hymn.

(Marching or standing)

No. 16. With happy voices ringing.

Opening Sentences.

(Seated)

LEADER. Today, whatever may annoy,
The world for us is joy — just simple joy.
The joy of bright blue skies;
The joy of rain; the glad surprise
Of twinkling stars that shine at night;
The joy of winged things upon their flight:
The countless joys that ever flow from him
Whose vast beneficence doth dim
The lustrous light of day
And lavish gifts divine upon our way.¹

ASSEMBLY. I will rejoice in the Lord,
I will joy in the God of my salvation.

Habakkuk 3: 18.

Hymn.

(Seated)

(No. 29. First stanza only.)

Joyful, joyful, we adore thee,
God of glory, Lord of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before thee,
Hail thee as the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness;
Drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness,
Fill us with the light of day!

¶ To be read by the Leader, or someone chosen for the purpose.

Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the Lord hath comforted his people.

Isaiah 49: 13.

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous:
 Praise is comely for the upright.
 Sing unto him a new song;
 Play skillfully with a loud noise.
 For the word of the Lord is right;
 And all his work is done in faithfulness.
 He loveth righteousness and justice:
 The earth is full of the lovingkindness of the Lord.

Psalm 33: 1, 3-5.

Fear not, O land, be glad and rejoice; for the Lord hath done great things.
 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God.

Joel 2: 21, 23.

Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee.

Psalm 40: 16.

Hymn.

(Seated)

(No. 29. Second stanza. Chord only.)

All thy works with joy surround thee,
 Earth and heaven reflect thy rays;
 Stars and angels sing around thee,
 Center of unbroken praise:
 Field and forest, vale and mountain,
 Blossoming meadow, flashing sea,
 Chanting bird and flowing fountain,
 Call us to rejoice in thee.

LEADER. There is sprung up a light for the righteous, and joyful gladness for such as are true-hearted.

Psalm 97: 11.

ASSEMBLY. Make a joyful noise unto God, all the earth:

Sing forth the glory of his name:

Make his praise glorious.

All the earth shall worship thee,

And shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name.

Psalm 66: 1, 2, 4.

LEADER. My soul shall be joyful in the Lord;

It shall rejoice in his salvation.

Psalm 35: 9.

ASSEMBLY. Thou wilt show me the path of life:

In thy presence is fullness of joy;

In thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

Psalm 16: 11.

(No. 29. Third stanza. Chord only.)

Thou art giving and forgiving,
 Ever blessing, ever blessed,
 Wellspring of the joy of living,
 Ocean-depth of happy rest.
 Thou our Father, Christ our Brother, —
 All who live in love are thine:
 Teach us how to love each other,
 Lift us to the joy divine.

III. New Testament

Scripture Reading.

(Seated)

¶ To be read by Leader or someone chosen for the purpose.

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; and so shall ye be my disciples. Even as the Father hath loved me, I also have loved you: abide ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be made full.

John 15: 8-11.

Rejoice in the Lord always, and again I will say, Rejoice. Philippians 4: 4.

Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author the perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising shame.

Hebrews 12: 1, 2.

Whom not having seen ye love; on whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory.

I Peter 1: 8.

Hymn.

36. IN HONOR OF MOTHERS

A Service for Mother's Day, the Second Sunday in May

Hymn.

(Standing)

No. 58. There's a wideness in God's mercy.

Opening Sentence.

(Seated)

LEADER. An ancient proverb reads, "God could not be everywhere, so he made mothers." The truth is that mother-love is evidence that God is everywhere. It is part of God's love and care.

Responsive Reading.

(Standing)

LEADER. Our Scriptures bid us heed a mother's instruction: —

ASSEMBLY. My son, forsake not the teaching of thy mother;

It shall be a chaplet of grace unto thy head. Proverbs 1: 8, 9.

LEADER. They commend a son's faith gained from his mother's teaching: —

ASSEMBLY. I thank God for the faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded in thee also. I Timothy 1: 5.

LEADER. They contain a commandment as to our attitude to parents: —

ASSEMBLY. Honor thy father and thy mother (which is the first commandment with promise) that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. Ephesians 6: 2, 3.

LEADER. They tell us that God's love is like a mother's: —

ASSEMBLY. Ye have seen that the Lord is full of pity and merciful.

James 5: 11.

Because of the tender mercy of our God, whereby the dayspring from on high shall visit us,

To shine upon them that sit in darkness,

To guide our feet into the way of peace.

Luke 1: 78, 79.

As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted.

Jesus' thought and care for his mother. John 19: 25-27.

Call to Prayer.

LEADER. Let us pray the words of a poet's prayer for his mother, and make them our own.

Prayer.

(Seated, with bowed heads)

Protect her life, I pray,
Who gave the gift of life to me;
And may she know,
From day to day,
The deepening glow
Of joy that comes from thee.
I cannot pay my debt
For all the love that she has given;
But thou, Love's Lord,
Wilt not forget
Her due reward,—
Bless her in earth and heaven.¹

And for the precious things of the growth of the moons,
And for the chief things of the ancient mountains,
And for the precious things of the everlasting hills,
And for the precious things of the earth and the fulness thereof,
And the good will of him that dwelt in the bush.

Deuteronomy 33: 13-16.

¶ To be read responsively.

They that go down to the sea in ships,
That do business in great waters,

These see the works of the Lord,
And his wonders in the deep.

For he commandeth and raiseth the stormy wind
Which lifteth up the waves thereof.

Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble,
And he bringeth them out of their distresses.

He maketh the storm a calm,
So that the waves thereof are still.

Then they are glad because they be quiet;
So he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

Psalm 107: 23-25, 28-30.

Hymn.

(Seated or Standing)

(Second Stanza only. No. 23.)

Life and death, thy creatures, praise thee, Mighty Giver!
Praise and prayer are rising in thy beast and bird and tree:
Lo! they praise and vanish, vanish at thy bidding, —
Who wert, and art, and evermore shalt be!

Jesus in the Open Air

And Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea; and a great multitude, hearing what great things he did, came unto him. Mark 3: 7, 8.

And in the morning, a great while before day, he rose up and went out, and departed into a desert place, and there prayed. Mark 1: 35.

God Revealed in Nature

The invisible things of God since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made: even his everlasting power and divinity. Romans 1: 20.

The touch of an eternal Presence thrills
The fringes of the sunsets and the hills.²

I have felt
 A Presence that disturbs me with the joy
 Of elevated thoughts; a sense sublime
 Of something far more deeply interfused,
 Whose dwelling is the light of setting suns,
 And the round ocean, and the living air,
 And the blue sky, and in the mind of man.
 A motion and a spirit that impels
 All thinking things, all objects of all thoughts,
 And rolls through all things.³

Broad is the carpet God has spread, and beautiful are the colors he has given it. — O God, whatever road I take joins the highway that leads to thee.⁴

Earth's crammed with heaven,
 And every common bush afire with God.⁵

Each and All

All are needed by each one;
 Nothing is fair or good alone.
 Over me soared the eternal sky,
 Full of light and of deity;
 Beauty through all my senses stole;
 I yielded myself to the perfect whole.⁶

I said it on the meadow path,
 I say it on the mountain stairs, —
 The best things any mortal hath
 Are those which every mortal shares.

The grass is softer to my tread
 For rest it yields unnumbered feet;
 Sweeter to me the wild rose red
 Because it makes the whole world sweet.⁷

Our Place in Nature

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers,
 The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;
 What is man, that thou art mindful of him?
 And the son of man, that thou visitest him?
 For thou hast made him but little lower than God,
 And crownest him with glory and honor.

Psalm 8: 3-5.

The world stands out on either side
 No wider than the heart is wide;
 Above the world is stretched the sky, —
 No higher than the soul is high.
 The heart can push the sea and land
 Farther away on either hand;
 The soul can split the sky in two,
 And let the face of God shine through.⁸

Hymn.

¶ No. 23. Last stanza.

 Shepherd of the wandering star and souls that wayward flee!
 Homeward draws the spirit to thy Spirit yearning,
 Who wert, and art, and evermore shalt be!

¶ To be said in unison.

Give us, O Lord, a religion that will stand the out-of-doors. May it be as fadeless as the sky, unchanged through eternal exposure! May it be as natural as the feel of the moist earth beneath our feet, as refreshing as the closing of tired eyes in sleep, and as restful as the waking to new tasks. Let our worship be as constant as the air about us that leaves no vacant space, and as strong as the flood that finds its way to the sea, its own! Make our devotion as simple and as fragrant as the wild rose blooming alone in the woods, just because it is a wild rose, and God made it so!⁹ Amen.

Come, and I will show you what is beautiful. It is a rose fully blown.
See how she sits upon her mossy stem, like the queen of all the flowers.
Her petals glow like fire. She is the delight of every eye.

She is beautiful, but there is a fairer than she. He that made the rose is more beautiful than the rose.

Come, and I will show you what is strong. The lion is strong when he raiseth himself up from his lair. When the voice of his roaring is heard, the wild beasts of the desert hide themselves.

The lion is strong, but there is a stronger than he. He that made the lion is stronger than the lion.

Come, and I will show you what is glorious. The sun is glorious when he shineth in the sky; when he looketh abroad over all the earth.

The sun is glorious, but there is a more glorious than he. He that made the sun is more glorious than the sun.

Let us sing praises to this great Power that maketh all things, but is more excellent than all which he hath made.

they are perfect, but he is Perfection.²

SERVICE ELEMENTS

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

1. O come, let us worship and bow down,
Let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker:
For he is our God,
And we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.
Psalm 95: 6, 7a.
2. Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up unto the Lord.
O Lord, open thou our lips;
And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.
Praise ye the Lord.
The Lord's name be praised.
3. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?
And who shall stand in his holy place?
He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart;
Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity,
And hath not sworn deceitfully.
Psalm 24: 3, 4.
4. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name.
Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness; say among the nations, the Lord reigneth.
Psalm 96: 9.
5. The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is spirit, and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.
John 4: 23, 24.
6. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you?
But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.
Matthew 6: 30, 33.
7. He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?
Micah 6: 8.
8. Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the spirit of God dwelleth in you?
I Corinthians 3: 16.
For as many as are led by the spirit of God, they are children of God.
Romans 8: 14.

READINGS

I

The Great Deliverer

Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord:
I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously:

The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation.
Thou in thy mercy hast led the people which thou hast redeemed.

Thou has guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

The Lord also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God;

He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

He brought me forth also into a larger place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried; he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

For who is God save the Lord? or who is a rock save our God?

It is he that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.
Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation;

Thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.

The Lord liveth: blessed be the Lord my rock;

Let the God of my salvation be exalted.

II

Cease to do Evil, Learn to do Well

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

Keep thine heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house. He that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

For the way of the wicked is darkness: they know not at what they stumble:
But the path of the just is as the dawning light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

A wholesome tongue is a tree of life, but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord.

Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with a whole heart.

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

III

The Spirit of God

I

Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there; if I make my bed in the grave, behold, thou art there.

If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day:
the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

I love the Lord because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.

Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men.

For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

IV

Lead Me, O Lord

Give ear to my words, O Lord; consider my meditation.

Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.

My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee:

Let such as love thy salvation say continually, The Lord be magnified.

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving kindness:

According to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness. Make thy way plain before my face.

V

Love

Let love be without hypocrisy.

Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

Be tenderly affectioned one to another, in honor preferring one another.

Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not.

Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that weep.

Be not wise in your own conceits.

Render to no man evil for evil.

If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink.

Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

He that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

Set me as a seal upon thine heart, for love is as strong as death.

Many waters cannot quench it; neither can floods drown it.

Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.

A new commandment give I unto you that ye love one another even as I have loved you.

VI

The Faithful Friend

Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love.

As much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men;

With all lowliness and meekness and long-suffering forbearing one another, and forgiving one another.

Love is the fulfilling of the law. He who loveth God, loveth his brother also.

A faithful friend is a strong defense; and he that hath found such a one hath found a treasure.

A faithful friend is the medicine of life; and they that fear the Lord shall find him.

Whoso feareth the Lord shall direct his friendship aright.

For as he is, so shall his neighbor be also.

Then shall the king say: I was hungered and ye gave me meat.

I was thirsty and ye gave me drink.

I was a stranger and ye took me in.

I was sick and ye visited me —

I was in prison and ye came unto me —

Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye did it unto me.

VII

Wisdom

I

Then with my whole heart I prayed and said:

O God of the fathers, Lord of mercy, who madest all things by thy word, grant unto me wisdom, that sitteth by thy throne, and was present when thou wast making the world.

For what man knoweth the counsel of God? Or who hath conceived what the Lord willeth?

For hardly do we divine the things that are on earth.

And the things that are close at hand we find with labour;

But the things that are in the heavens who ever yet traced out?

And who ever gained knowledge of thy counsel, except thou gavest wisdom?

For it is a part of wisdom to know whose gift she is.

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handy-work.

Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.
There is no speech nor language; their voice is not heard.

Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world.

In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy riches.

VIII

The Light of the World

Ye are the salt of the earth.

But if the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be salted?

Ye are the light of the world; a city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

Neither do men light a lamp and put it under the bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that are in the house.

Even so let your light shine before men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your father who is in heaven.

Be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might.

Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the enemy.

Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness,

And having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace.

To this end have I been born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth.

IX

The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called children of God.

Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets that were before you.

X

Laws of the Righteous Life

(I) From the Old Testament.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.

Thou shalt not kill, nor steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Thou shalt not covet any thing that is thy neighbor's.

Honor thy father and thy mother.

Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head and honor the face of the old.

(II) From the New Testament.

Jesus said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

Love your enemies.

Bless them that curse you,

Do good to them that hate you;

Pray for them that despitefully use you and persecute you.

Ye therefore shall be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Speak ye truth each one with his neighbor.

Be ye kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another.

Walk in love, even as Christ also loved you.

Walk as children of the light, proving what is well-pleasing unto the Lord.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right.

Honor thy father and mother, that it may be well with thee.

Be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might.

XI

The Word of God

I

The law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul:

The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart:
The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.
The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever:
The ordinances of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.
More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold:
Sweeter also than honey and the droppings of the honeycomb.
Moreover by them is thy servant warned:

In keeping them there is great reward.

Psalm 119: 7-11.

The opening of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple.

Psalm 119: 130.

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of our God shall stand forever.

Isaiah 40: 8.

Every Scripture inspired of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction which is in righteousness: that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work.

II Timothy 3: 16, 17.

Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only.

James 1: 22.

Everything that is true is God's word.

Zwingli.

Reveal thy truth, O Lord!

The truth that sets us free;

And let thy hallowed word

Be more than liberty.

H. W. Hawkes.

XII

The Faithful

Renewed at this time be all noble memories, all high and holy traditions of the past.

Remembered be our fathers, who founded the nation in integrity and piety, and died in faith, not having received the promises, but seeing them afar off.

Leaders of the people by their judgment, giving counsel by their understanding.

Friends of liberty and just laws; at all times steadfast and faithful.

Remembered also be the toil and patient endurance of unnamed men and women, who have stood faithful to what they believed to be right.

Their example will not be forgotten, and the glory of their work cannot be blotted out.

XIII

On Friendship

A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

Proverbs 17: 17.

A man that hath friends must show himself friendly; and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

Proverbs 18: 24.

All our worships, and friendships, and loves, come from God, and are but reflections of the divine tenderness.

Hugh Black.

So long as we are loved by others

I would almost say that we are indispensable

And no man is useless while he has a friend.

Robert Louis Stevenson.

Our chief want in life is somebody who can make us do what we can. This is the service of a friend.

Emerson.

Happy is the house that shelters a friend! It might well be built, like a festal bower or arch, to entertain him a single day.

A friend is a person with whom I may be sincere. Before him I may think aloud.

The only way to have a friend is to be one.

Emerson.

No man is the whole of himself; his friends are the rest of him.

Fosdick.

Wouldst have a friend?

Wouldst know what friend is best?

Have God thy friend, he passeth all the rest.

James Whitcomb Riley.

Builders of the City of God

For the finer spirits of the world there are two dwelling places; our homeland and the City of God.

Of the one we are the guests, of the other the builders.

To the one we will give our lives and our faithful hearts; in the other the spirit shall abide.

The spirit is a light. It is our duty to keep it dwelling above tempests, to thrust aside the clouds which threaten to obscure it.

It is a task not unworthy of those who through the life of the spirit have wider relations with the universe,

To build higher and stronger, dominating the injustice and hatred of nations, the walls of that city wherein the souls of the whole earth may assemble.

Romaine Rolland.

XV

What Religion Is

From earliest times man has reached forward towards some greater good — some better life.

Each new age has brought its great prophets who have seen the larger vision and the higher goal for mankind.

Through fires of persecution and bonds of superstition new truths have broken forth.

The faiths of yesterday, illuminated and purified by the light of greater knowledge, take ever newer and nobler forms.

Religion is the untiring quest for a better life, — the unfolding of man's highest possibilities.

It is the name for all those inspirations and impulses by which we are moved to seek the best, and to ardently desire the best for others. E. H. Reeman.

XVI

From Washington's Farewell Address

Cherish a cordial, immovable attachment to our national Union.

Be justly proud of the name American.

This Government, the offspring of your own choice, has a just claim to your confidence and support.

Respect its authority; comply with its laws.

Avoid overgrown military establishments, which are particularly hostile to republican liberties.

Observe good faith and justice toward all nations.

Cultivate liberal intercourse, peace and harmony with all.

Give to mankind the magnanimous example of a people always guided by an exalted justice and benevolence.

George Washington's Prayer for the Nation

Almighty God: We make our earnest prayer that thou wilt keep the United States in thy holy protection; that thou wilt incline the hearts of the citizens to entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another. And that thou wilt most graciously be pleased to dispose us all to do justice to love mercy, and to demean ourselves with that charity, humility, and pacific temper of mind which were the characteristics of the Divine Author of our religion, and without a humble imitation of whose example in these things we can never hope to be a happy nation. Grant our supplication, we beseech thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. . Amen.

XVII

The American Flag

I am what you make me, nothing more.

I swing before your eyes as a bright gleam of color,

A symbol of yourself,

A pictured suggestion of that big thing which makes this nation.

My stars and my stripes are your dream and your labors.

They are bright with cheer, brilliant with courage, firm with faith, because you have made them so out of your hearts.

WE ARE ALL MAKING THE FLAG.

Franklin K. Lane.

Apostrophe to the Flag. (All uniting.)

All hail to our glorious ensign!

Courage to the heart, and strength to the hand, to which, in all time, it shall be entrusted. On whatsoever spot it is planted, there may freedom have a foothold, humanity a brave champion, and religion an altar.

Edward Everett.

In the name of God we lift up our banner, and dedicate it to peace, union, and liberty, now and forevermore.

Henry Ward Beecher.

The Flag means universal education — light for every mind, knowledge for every child. We must have but one flag. We must also have but one language.

This must be the language of the Declaration of Independence.

Woodrow Wilson.

Your flag and my flag,
And oh, how much it holds,
Your land and my land
Secure within its folds!
Your heart and my heart
Beat quicker at the sight;
Sun-kissed and wind-tossed,
Red and blue and white, —
The one flag, the great flag,
The flag for me and you,
Glorified all else beside, —
The red and white and blue.

W. D. Nesbit.

PRAYERS

I. THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

II. A PRAYER FOR DELIVERANCE

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, we thank thee for thy great power of deliverance. When we meet ungodly foes, when we are tempted to lie, or steal, when we are afraid of failure or when we are overcome with disappointment, be with us, O Lord, to strengthen and sustain; and thine shall be the glory for each victory. Amen.

III. FOR GOD'S SPIRIT WITH US

We thank thee, O God, that thou speakest to us in the still small voice within our souls. We rejoice that thou art our Father, that thy law is righteousness, and thy word is truth. Make us to feel thy presence around us and within us. Help us to love the things that thou lovest, and, studying to know thy will, may we worship thee with the service of our daily lives. Amen.

IV. FOR THE FRIENDLY SPIRIT

Infinite and loving Heavenly Father, who hast made all nations of the earth to dwell in one great family, we thank thee for our friends, and for our neighbors, and for our brothers and sisters of all races, in this land and in all lands. Teach us to be loyal to them, even as we wish them to be loyal to us. Help us to control our tongues when we are tempted to speak unkindly of them, and strengthen our courage to defend them against injustice. So may we become friends of boys and girls, of men and women of all nations and kindreds, and as comrades rejoice in the daily work which we may do for one another and for thee. Amen.

V. THANKS THAT WE MAY HELP THE MASTER BUILDER

Heavenly Father, from whose heart of infinite love all creation springs, we look to thee as the master builder of the universe. The starry hosts of heaven proclaim the splendor of thy toil. The smallest creatures of the earth show thy watchful care. Thou openest the rose as tenderly as if it were the heart of thy whole vast creation. We thank thee for the joy of helping thee to make our world more beautiful, and pray that we may be strong and faithful in the work which thou hast given us to do. Amen.

VI. FOR THE STEADFAST HEART

Almighty and everlasting God, whose voice created and whose wisdom guides, we thank thee for the noble spirit of self-reliance which thou hast put into our hearts. We are glad for the courage of strong men, and the endurance of brave women, who went forth as pioneers in new countries and in new realms of thought. We pray that we also may be courageous, steadfast, and loyal, willing to brave hardships or dangers whenever they lie in the path of duty. Thus may we conquer in thy name, and thine shall be the honor and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

VII. FOR CONSECRATION TO OUR WORK

Give thy blessing, we pray thee, to this our daily work, that we may do it in faith heartily as to the Lord, and not unto men. All our powers of body and mind are thine, and we would fain devote them to thy service. Sanctify them and the work in which they are engaged; let us not be slothful, but fervent in spirit, and do thou, O Lord, so bless our efforts, that we may bring forth in us the fruits of true wisdom. Amen.

Dr. Arnold of Rugby.

VIII. FOR DELIVERANCE

Most holy God of wisdom, love, and power, bless us, we pray, and make us truly thine. Forgive our sins, purify our hearts, and fill our souls with light. Deliver us from every fear except that of doing wrong. Enable us to see our own mistakes, that we may alter them, and then go forward on the better path. Guide us to honor, truth, and usefulness; and teach us how to grow unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ. Amen.

Henry Van Dyke.

IX. THE NEW DAY

O God, who hast folded back the black mantle of the night to clothe us in the golden glory of the day, chase from our hearts all gloomy thoughts, and make us glad with the brightness of hope, that we may effectively aspire to unwon virtues; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Bishop Brent.

X. FOR ONE'S FRIENDS

O blessed Lord, who hast commanded us to love one another, grant us grace that, having received thine undeserved bounty, we may love every one in thee and for thee. We implore thy clemency for all; but especially for the friends whom thy love has given to us. Love thou them, O thou Fountain of love, and make them to love thee with all their hearts, that they may will, and speak, and do those things only which are pleasing to thee. Amen. St. Anselm.

XI. FOR FORGIVENESS AND HELP

Our Heavenly Father, we have left undone things we ought to have done, and we have done things we ought not to have done. Sometimes we are angry; sometimes selfish. Sometimes we know we are doing wrong; other times we forget. Forgive us, our Father, our failures and mistakes, for we are sorry for them all.

Help us to be better and more willing every day. Help us to control our tempers. Help us to do the thing we know to be right. May we cherish no selfish or unworthy desire, nor think any unkind thought. We will keep on trying, for thou art in us, helping us all the time.

Whatever we may have to do or to endure be thou, O God, our strength and our defence. In Jesus' name. Amen. The Book of Worship of the Church School.

XII. FOR STRENGTH OF CHARACTER

Lord, my God, who dost place before me two ways of life — the good way, and the bad — help me, I pray thee, always to choose the good. May I be kind, and speak the truth, and do the right. Help me to learn my lessons well. If any task is hard for me, still may I be brave, and keep on as I ought. In my play may I do no harm, but always be fair and just to all. If I must suffer any pain, help me to bear it well, and not to fret. So may I be a loving child to thee, this and every day. Amen. W. G. Tarrant.

XIII. FOR MY COUNTRY

Lord God of all the world, who hast given our people a land so fair, and hast led them by great and glorious men, I thank thee that here is my dwelling-place. May I prize it ever more wisely. Many a faithful citizen has blessed our nation, with courage, diligence, and self-sacrifice. Show me daily, that I also can render it some true service.

Let me strive to be like the heroes — not only to praise them. May I still grow in wisdom and in strength, and share more fully in all good works. Enroll me, O King of kings, in the army of those who fight against ignorance, vice, and misery. And still increase its numbers, Lord. so that this dear land may be a blessing to all the world. Amen.

W. G. Tarrant.

XIV. TO DO GOD'S WILL

Grant us, O Lord, to know that which is worth knowing, to love that which is worth loving, to praise that which pleaseth thee most, to esteem that highly which to thee is precious, to abhor that which is displeasing in thy sight, and, above all, to be ever searching after the good pleasure of thy will made known to us through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Thomas A. Kempis.

XV. FOR LOYALTY

Bestow on us rightly, O Lord, the spirit of loyalty, that we may make the most and the best of life — loyalty to convictions, which imparts strength of character and creates the straight path of action; loyalty to friends, which is the sign and token of a noble heart; loyalty to country, for enlightened patriotism is the very soul of our Republic. Inspired by this spirit we shall walk, not in the darkness of indecision and weakness, but in the light, as loyal followers of him who was the Light of the world. Amen. Edward A. Horton.

XVI. FOR LOVE IN OUR HEARTS

Dear Father, help us to love each other truly, that we may rightly worship thee. May our smiles be hymns of joy to thee, singing their way into the loves of those we meet. Make us eager to do kindly deeds that shall be as prayers, because of the love in our hearts. So may the whole life of each of us be like a psalm of gratitude. May we grow each day more like Jesus who was always kind even to his enemies. Amen. J. L. Baldwin—Service and Songs.

XVII. FOR THE SPIRIT OF HELPFULNESS

Our Father, we thank thee that in work and in play, in joy and in sorrow, thou art the friend and companion of us all. When we do wrong and grieve thee, thou art ready to forgive. When we do right, thou art glad.

May no hatred or envy dwell in our hearts. Keep our hands from selfish deeds and our lips from unkind words. Teach us to bring cheer to any who suffer, and to share freely with those who are in need. So may we help thee, our Father, to bring peace, goodwill and joy to all thy children. Amen.

XVIII. FOR THE SPIRIT OF GOOD WILL

Our Father, help us to be kind!
Help us to learn to put ourselves in others' places;
Help us to do as we would be done by,—
To carry the burden for tired ones,
To remember those that are in bonds as bound with them,
To speak for them who cannot speak for themselves,
And never to find in another's pain our sport.
Help us to be like thine own self,
Who art all lovingkindness and tender mercies. Amen.

XIX. FOR HOME AND FRIENDS

O Thou Friend of loving hearts, we thank thee for our homes, our parents, our brothers and sisters, and our friends. May we be a blessing to them all. We thank thee for Jesus, true friend of the humble, the lowly, and the lost, through whom we learn of thy love for us. May we love our friends, whom we have seen, and so learn to love thee whom we have not seen. May we dwell in love and so dwell in thee; and reveal the Christ spirit in our hearts by our love to all who need a friend. We ask as followers of the Master. Amen.

XX. A PRAYER OF ST. AUGUSTINE

(a)

O Thou Good Omnipotent, who so carest for every one of us, as if thou caredst for him alone; and so for all, as if all were but one! Blessed is the man who loveth thee, and his friend in thee, and his enemy for thee. For he only loses none dear to him, to whom all are dear in him who cannot be lost. And who is that but our God, the God that made heaven and earth, and filleth them, even by filling them creating them. Amen.

(b)

O loving God, thy law is truth, and truth is thyself. I behold how some things pass away that others may replace them, but thou dost never depart, O God, my Father supremely good, Beauty of all things beautiful. To thee will I intrust whatsoever I have received from thee, so shall I lose nothing. Thou madest me for thyself, and my heart is restless until it repose in thee. Amen.

XXI. THAT WE MAY BE FRIENDS

All the earth rejoices in the joy and warmth of sunshine. Beneath the sun's glad rays the flowers bloom and the fields ripen their harvests. Friendship is the sunshine of the soul. Where people love greatly they live broadly and all their broad expanse of life is filled with growing flowers. May we all be friends of one another — true friends, who serve because they love. May we be friends of all who need our friendship: our souls prophetic of the joy that waits the world when love shall banish hate, and every man be called the friend of man. Amen.

Beatrice M. McKenzie.

XXII. THAT WE MAY FOLLOW JESUS

Heavenly Father, we thank thee for the teaching that we read in the life of our Master. Help us to follow him. Help us to be obedient to his higher lessons. Help us to walk on his side. And so, as he himself desired, be at one with God and himself. Amen.

Miles Hanson.

XXIII. THAT WE MAY TRULY WORSHIP

Our Heavenly Father, help us now to spend an hour in thy real presence. Help us to inquire, feeling that the Spirit will answer. Help us to worship so that the hour may help us to be the men and women that we should like to be. Help us so that the hour may lift our lives on to a higher level, so that we may more truthfully walk with God. Sanctify each act of our service, so that no flitting thought and no unworthy motive may disturb the quiet worship of our souls. Amen.

Miles Hanson.

XXIV. A THANKSGIVING

We rejoice at this Thanksgiving season, in all the bounties of nature. Like a great mother, earth brings forth of her abundance for the sustenance of man. The valleys covered with corn, and the pastures clothed with flocks, are nature's gifts to mankind. May we treasure these gifts and use them that all may receive their share. May we be as generous as the earth is rich in its bounty to all.

We give thanks especially for the harvest of the spirit in which we share; for the spread of truth, for the abundance of goodness, of fellowship, of kindness. We thank thee for the spirit of love and service revealed in Jesus, for his words which show us the way of life. For all thy gifts we thank thee, O soul of all things. Amen.

XXV. FOR STRENGTH

This is my prayer to thee, my Lord:

Give me the strength lightly to bear my joys and sorrows.

Give me the strength to make my love fruitful in service.

Give me the strength never to disown the poor or bend my knees before insolent might.

Give me the strength to raise my mind high above daily trifles.

And give me the strength to surrender my strength to thy will in love.
Amen.

Tagore.

XXVI. A PRAYER OFFERED BY BOYS AND MEN

O God, our Father, thou Searcher of men's hearts, help us to draw near to thee in sincerity and truth. May our religion be filled with gladness and may our worship of thee be natural.

Strengthen and increase our admiration for honest dealing and clean thinking, and suffer not our hatred of hypocrisy and pretense ever to diminish. Encourage us in our endeavor to live above the common level of life. Make us to choose the harder right instead of the easier wrong, and never to be content with a half truth when the whole can be won. Endow us with courage that is born of loyalty to all that is noble and worthy, that scorns to compromise with vice and injustice, and knows no fear when truth and right are in jeopardy. Guard us against flippancy and irreverence in the sacred things of life. Grant us new ties of friendship and new opportunities of service. Kindle our hearts in fellowship with those of a cheerful countenance, and soften our hearts with sympathy for those who sorrow and suffer. May we find genuine pleasure in clean and wholesome mirth, and feel inherent disgust for all coarse-minded humor. Help us, in our work and in our play, to keep ourselves physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight, that we may the better do our duty to thee and to our country. All of which we ask in the name of the Great Friend and Master of men. Amen.

Chaplain Clayton E. Wheat.

XXVII. A PRAYER OF SAINT CHRYSOSTOM

Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy name thou wilt grant their requests; fulfill now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

14 Lord, this day thy children meet

WILLIAM W. HOW, 1854

Abridged

Old French Melody. 7, 7, 7, 7

Arr. by RICHARD REDHEAD, 1853

1. Lord, this day thy chil-dren meet, In thy courts with will-ing feet;
 2. Not a-lone the day of rest With thy wor-ship shall be blest;
 3. Help us un-to thee to pray, Hal-low-ing our hap-py day;
 4. Make, O Lord, our child-hood shine With all low-ly grace, like thine;

Un-to thee this day they raise Grate-ful hearts in hymns of praise.
 In our pleas-ure and our glee, Lord, we would re-mem-ber thee.
 From thy pres-ence thus to win Hearts all pure and free from sin.
 Then thro' all e-ter-ni-ty We shall live in heav'n with thee. A-men.

Children of the heavenly King

JOHN CENNICK, 1743

Pleyel's Hymn. Four 7's
Arr. from IGNAZ J. PLEYEL, 1790

1. Chil - dren of the heav'n - ly King, As ye jour - ney, sweet - ly sing!
 2. Lift your eyes, ye sons of light! Si - on's cit - y is in sight:
 3. Lord, o - be - dient - ly we go, Glad - ly leav - ing all be - low;

Sing your Mak - er's wor - thy praise, Glo - rious in his works and ways!
 There our end - less home shall be, There our Lord we soon shall see.
 On - ly thou our lead - er be, And we still will fol - low thee. A - men.

Father, again to thy dear name

JOHN ELLERTON, 1866

Ellers. Four 10's
EDWARD J. HOPKINS, 1868

1. Fa - ther, a - gain to thy dear name we raise,
2. Grant us thy peace up - on our home - ward way;
3. Grant us thy peace, Lord, through the com - ing night;
4. Grant us thy peace through - out our earth - ly life,

With one ac - cord, our part - ing hymn of praise;
With thee be - gan, with thee shall end the day;
Turn thou for us its dark - ness in - to light;
Our balm in sor - row, and our stay in strife;

We stand to bless thee ere our wor - ship cease,
Guard thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
From harm and dan - ger keep thy chil - dren free,
Then, when thy voice shall bid our con - flict cease,

Then, low - ly kneel - ing, wait thy word of peace.
That in this house have called up - on thy name.
For dark and light are both a - like to thee.
Call us, O Lord, to thine e - ter - nal peace. A - men.

II. THE WORSHIP OF GOD

ADORATION AND PRAISE

22 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty

REGINALD HEBER, 1826

Arranged

Nicæa. 11, 12, 12, 10

JOHN B. DYKES, 1861

1. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! . Lord . God Al - might - y!
2. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! . Though the dark - ness hide thee,
3. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! . Lord . God Al - might - y!

Ear - ly in the morn - ing our song shall rise to thee;
Though the eye of sin - ful man thy glo - ry may not see,
All thy works shall praise thy name in earth, and sky, and sea;

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! . Mer - ci - ful and Might - y!
On - ly thou art ho - ly, . there is none be - side thee
Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! . Mer - ci - ful and Might - y!

Who wert, and art, and . ev - er - more shalt be.
Per - fect in pow'r, in . love and pu - ri - ty!
Who wert, and art, and . ev - er - more shalt be. A-men.

26 Praise to God, immortal praise

ANNA L. BARBAULD, 1772

Redhead No. 76. Six 7's

RICHARD REDHEAD, 1853

Broadly

1. Praise to God, im - mor - tal praise, For the love that crowns our days;
2. All the plen - ty sum - mer pours; Au - tumn's rich o'er - flow - ing stores;
3. As thy pros - p'ring hand hath blest, May we give thee of our best;

Boun - teous source of ev - 'ry joy, Let thy praise our tongues em - ploy;
Flocks that whit - en all the plain; Yel - low sheaves of rip - ened grain;
And by deeds of kind - ly love For thy mer - cies grate - ful prove;

All to thee, our God, we owe, Source whence all our bless - ings flow.
Lord, for these our souls shall raise Grate - ful vows and sol - emn praise.
Sing - ing thus thro' all our days, Praise to God, im - mor - tal praise. A-men.

O worship the King

Lyons. 10, 10, 11, 11

Arr. from HAYDN

ROBERT GRANT, 1833

Sturdily

1. O wor - ship the King, all - glo - rious a - bove,
 2. O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
 3. Thy boun - ti - ful care what tongue can re - cite?
 4. Frail chil - dren of dust, and fleet - ing as frail,

O grate - ful - ly sing his pow'r and his love;
 Whose robe is the light, whose can - o - py space;
 It breathes in the air, it shines in the light;
 In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;

Our Shield and De - fend - er, the An - cient of days,
 His char - iots of wrath the deep thun - der - clouds form,
 It streams from the hills, it de - scends to the plain,
 Thy mer - cies how ten - der, how firm to the end,

Pa - vil - ioned in splen - dor, and gird - ed with praise.

Sing in Unison

1. An - cient of Days, who sit - test throned in glo - ry,
 2. O Ho - ly Fa - ther, who hast led thy chil - dren
 3. O Bless - ed God, with heart and voice a - dor - ing,

To thee all knees are bent, all voices pray;
 In all the ages, with the fire and cloud,
 Praise we the goodness that doth crown our days;

Thy love has blessed the wide world's wondrous story
 Through seas dry-shod, through weary wastes be-wil-d'ring;
 Pray we that thou wilt hear us, still im-plor-ing

With light and life since E - den's dawn - ing day.
 To thee, in rev - 'rent love, our hearts are bowed.
 Thy love and fa - vor kept to us al - ways. A - men.

With great vigor and firmness

Hymn to Joy. 8, 7, 8, 7, D.

Arr. from BEETHOVEN, 1826

1. Joy - ful, joy - ful, we a - dore thee, God of glo - ry, Lord of love;
 2. All thy works with joy sur-round thee, Earth and heav'n re - flect thy rays,
 3. Thou art giv - ing and for - giv - ing, Ev - er bless - ing, ev - er blest,
 4. Mor - tals join the might - y cho - rus, Which the morn - ing stars be - gan;

Hearts un - fold like flow'rs be - fore thee, Hail thee as the sun a - bove.
 Stars and an - gels sing a - round thee, Cen - ter of un - bro - ken praise:
 Well-spring of the joy of liv - ing, O - cean-depth of hap - py rest!
 Fa - ther - love is reign - ing o'er us, Broth - er - love binds man to man.

He made their glow - ing col - ors, He made their ti - ny wings,
The sun - set and the morn - ing, That bright-en up the sky,

The first system of musical notation for the song 'God in Nature'. It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time, with a melody of quarter and eighth notes. The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords in the right hand. The system concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

The cold wind in the win - ter, The pleas - ant sum - mer sun,
He gave us eyes to see them, And lips that we might tell

The second system of musical notation. The vocal line continues with a similar melodic pattern. The piano accompaniment includes some chords marked with an 'x' in the right hand. The system ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Da Capo
The ripe fruits in the gar - den, He made them ev - 'ry one.
How great is God our Fa - ther, Who do - eth all things well.

The third system of musical notation, beginning with the instruction 'Da Capo'. The vocal line features a final melodic phrase. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with chords and a moving bass line. The system concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

We are come with joy and gladness

In Babilone. 8, 7, 8, 7, D.

Ancient Dutch Melody

R. WALMSLEY

Harmonized by WINFRED DOUGLAS, 1918

1. We are come with joy and glad-ness, Once a - gain, our God and King
 2. We are come, a band of sing-ers; There are wea - ry ones and sad,
 3. We are come, a band of work-ers; We would bring both heart and brain

To re - call thy lov - ing kind-ness, And our fes - tal hymns to sing.
 And we bring our cheer - ful mu - sic And our songs to make them glad.
 To the ser - vice of the Mas - ter, That his will in all may reign.

With a fresh and strong de - vo - tion, Ev - 'ry heart do thou in - spire,
 There is hope and joy e - ter - nal For the world's de-spond-ent throng;
 Then for - ev - er and for - ev - er Will the right have con - quered wrong,

That each spark of love may brighten In - to flame of ho - ly fire.
 We are come, a band of sing-ers, To pro - claim the news in song.
 And the world shall change its sigh-ing, In - to glad, tri - um-phant song. A-men.

We plough the fields

MATTHIAS CLAUDIUS, 1782
Tr. JANE M. CAMPBELL, 1861

Dresden. 7, 6, 7, 6, D. With Refrain
JOHANN A. P. SCHULZ, (1747-1800)

1. We plough the fields, and scatter The good seed on the land, But it is fed and wa-tered
2. He on - ly is the Mak - er Or all things near and far; He paints the wayside flower,
3. We thank thee, then, O Father, For all things bright and good; The seed-time and the harvest,

By God's al-might-y hand; He sends the snow in win - ter, The warmth to swell the grain,
He lights the eve-ning star; The winds and waves obey him, By him the birds are fed;
Our life, our health, our food; No gifts have we to of - fer For all thy love im-parts,

Canst thou count the stars

From the German
Tr. CHARLES T. BROOKS

Lee. 8, 7, 8, 7, 8, 8, 7, 7
WALTER S. SWISHER

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of three systems of music. Each system has a vocal line in treble clef and a piano accompaniment in grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The piano accompaniment features chords and moving lines in both hands. Pedal markings (Ped.) and asterisks (*) are placed below the piano part in the first and second systems.

Lord of all being, throned afar

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES, 1859
Abridged

Federal Street. L. M.
HENRY K. OLIVER, 1832

1. Lord of all be-ing, throned a-far, Thy glo-ry flames from sun and star;
2. Sun of our life, thy quick-'ning ray Sheds on our path the glow of day;
3. Our mid-night is thy smile with-drawn; Our noon-tide is thy gra-cious dawn;
4. Grant us thy truth to make us free, And kindling hearts that burn for thee,

Cen-ter and soul of ev-'ry sphere, Yet to each lov-ing heart how near!
Star of our hope, thy softened light Cheers the long watch-es of the night.
Our rainbow arch, thy mer-cy's sign: All, save the clouds of sin, are thine.

Panoply of Light. 8, 7, 8, 7, D. With Refrain
LEONARD PARKER

1. Hast thou heard it, O my broth-er, Hast thou heard the trum - pet sound?
2. Brave hearts thro' the mid - night sing-ing, Doubt-ing not the morn - ing star,
3. O the an - cient earth is call - ing, For such life as thine may be.

Loud - ly call - ing each the oth - er, War - rior hosts thy life sur - round.
Lo! the dawn breaks o'er them, bringing Signs of tri - umph from a - far;
A - ges gone were stum - bling, fall - ing, Toward the light thine eyes shall see.

Hark, the tides of bat - tle roll - ing, Fill the wide world like a sea,
Scorn - ing fear, the dark - ness scorn - ing, While thy brow of youth is bright,
Tho' the old, he - ro - ic sto - ry Glow with no - ble deed sub - lime,

Star - ry powers the tides con - trol - ling, Lift up faith - ful hearts and free.
Set thy fore - head to the morn - ing, Wear thy pan - o - ply of light.
There shall be a great - er glo - ry In the com - ing gold - en time.

COURAGE AND HEROISM

REFRAIN

Gird thee, gird thee, O my broth-er, We will march in close ar-ray,

Trust-ing God and in each oth-er, We are chil-dren of the day. A-men.

77 Thou Lord of Hosts, whose guiding hand

I. B. FROTHINGHAM, 1846

Truro. L. M.

CHARLES BURNEY, 1789

1. Thou Lord of Hosts, whose guid-ing hand Has brought us here, be - fore thy face,
2. And now, with hymn and prayer we stand To give our strength, great God, to thee;
3. Send us wher-e'er thou wilt, O Lord! Thro' rug-ged toil and wea-rying fight;
4. Send down thy con-stant aid, we pray; Be thy pure an - gels with us still;

Our spir-its wait for thy command, Our si-lent hearts implore thy peace.
We would re-deem our na-tive land, Till jus-tice reigns from sea to sea.
Thy conqu'ring love shall be our sword, And faith in thee our tru-est might.
Thy truth, be that our firm-est stay; Our on-ly rest, to do thy will. A-men.

A mighty fortress is our God

MARTIN LUTHER, 1529
Trans. FREDERIC H. HEDGE, 1852

Ein' Feste Burg. 8, 7, 8, 7. Four 6's, 7
MARTIN LUTHER, 1527

1. A might-y for-ress is our God, A bul-wark nev-er fail-ing;
2. God's word a-bove all earth-ly pow'rs—No thanks to them—a-bid-eth;

Our help-er he a-mid the flood Of mor-tal ills pre-vail-ing.
The spir-it and the gifts are ours, Thro' him who with us sid-eth.

For still our an-cient foe Doth seek to work us woe; His craft and pow'r are great;
Let goods and kin-dred go, This mor-tal life al-so; The bod-y they may kill,

And, arm'd with cru-el hate, On earth is not his e-qual.
God's truth a-bid-eth still; His king-dom is for-ev-er. A-men.

Christian, dost thou see them

ANDREW OF CRETE

St. Andrew of Crete. 6, 5, 6, 5, D.

Tr. JOHN M. NEALE, 1862. Modernized
Rather slowly

JOHN B. DYKES, 1868

1. Chris - tian, dost thou see them On the ho - ly ground,
 2. Chris - tian, dost thou feel them, How they work with - in, .
 3. Chris - tian, dost thou hear them, How they speak thee fair? .
 4. 'Well I know thy trou - ble, O my ser - vant true; .

How the pow'rs of dark - ness Com - pass thee a - round?
 Striv - ing, tempt - ing, lur - ing, Goad - ing in - to sin?
 'Al - ways self de - ni - al? Al - ways watch and pray'r?'
 Thou art ver - y wea - ry, I was wea - ry, too;

 Mer - cy thy days shall length - en, The Lord will give thee peace. A-men.

Brightly gleams our banner

THOMAS J. POTTER, 1860
Revised and abridged

St. Theresa. 6, 5, 6, 5, D.
ARTHUR S. SULLIVAN, 1874

1. Brightly gleams our ban-ner, Point-ing to the sky, Wav-ing pil-grims on-ward
2. All our days di-rect us In the way we go; Lead us on vic-to-rious
3. Then with saints and an-gels May we join a-bove, Off'ring pray'rs and praises

To their home on high. Journ'ying o'er the des-ert, Glad-ly thus we pray,
O-ver ev-ry foe: Bid thine an-gels shield us When the storm clouds lower,
At thy throne of love. When the toil is o-ver, Then comes rest and peace,

REFRAIN

And with hearts u-nit-ed Take our heav'nward way. Brightly gleams our ban-ner, Par-don, Lord, and save us From temp-tation's pow'r.
Life in end-less beau-ty! Songs that nev-er cease!

Point-ing to the sky, Wav-ing pil-grims onward To their home on high. A-men.

Fight the good fight with all thy might

JOHN S. B. MONSELL, 1863

Pentecost. L. M.

WILLIAM BOYD, 1868

1. Fight the good fight with all thy might! Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right;
 2. Run the straight race thro' God's good grace, Lift up thine eyes, and seek his face;
 3. Cast care a - side, up - on thy Guide Lean, and his mer - cy will pro - vide;
 4. Faint not nor fear, his arms are near, He chang-eth not and thou art dear;

COURAGE AND HEROISM

Lay hold on life, and it shall be Thy joy and crown e - ter - nal - ly.
 Life with its way be - fore us lies, Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.
 Lean, and the trust - ing soul shall prove Christ is its life, and Christ its love.

86 We praise thee, God, for harvests earned

Camden. L. M.

JOHN C. ADAMS, 1911

JOHN BAPTISTE CALKIN, 1872

Spirited

1. We praise thee, God, for har - vests earned, The fruits of la - bor gar - nered in;
 2. We praise thee for the har - bor's lee, And moor - ings safe in wa - ters still;
 3. We praise thee for the jour - ney's end, The inn, all warmth and light and cheer;

But praise thee more for soil un - turned From which the yield is yet to win!
 But more for leagues of o - pen sea, Where fav'ring gales our can - vas fill.
 But more for length'ning roads that wend Thro' dust and heat to hill - tops clear. A - men.

4 We praise thee for the conflicts won,
 For captured strongholds of the foe;
 But more for fields whereon the sun
 Lights us when we to battle go.

5 We praise thee for life's gathered gains,
 The blessings that our cup o'erbrim;
 But more for pledge of what remains
 Past the horizon's utmost rim!

Lead on, O King Eternal

ERNEST W. SHURTLEFF, 1888

Salve Domine. 7, 6, 7, 6, D.
LAWRENCE W. WATSON. 1909

1. Lead on, O King E - ter - nal: The day of march has come;
2. Lead on, O King E - ter - nal, Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
3. Lead on, O King E - ter - nal: We fol - low, not with fears,

Hence - forth in fields of con - quest Thy tents shall be our home;
And ho - li - ness shall whis - per The sweet A - men of peace!
For glad - ness breaks like morn - ing Wher - e'er thy face ap - pears.

Thro' days of prep - a - ra - tion Thy grace hath made us strong,
For not with swords, loud clash - ing, Nor roll of stir - ring drums,
Thy cross is lift - ed o'er us; We jour - ney in its light;

And now, O King e - ter - nal, We 'lift our bat - tle song.
But deeds of love and mer - cy, The heav'n - ly king - dom comes.
The crown a - waits the con - quest, Lead on, O God of might! A - men.

91 God's trumpet wakes the slumbering world

SAMUEL LONGFELLOW, 1864
Arranged

All Saints New. C. M. D.
HENRY S. CUTLER, 1872

1. God's trum - pet wakes the slum-b'ring world; Now, each man to his post! .
2. He who, no an - ger on his tongue, Nor an - y i - dle boast, .
3. He who is read - y for the cross, The cause de - spised loves most; .

The red - cross ban - ner is un-furl'd: Who joins the glo - rious host?
Bears stead - fast wit-ness 'gainst all wrong,—He joins the sa - cred host!
And shuns not pain or shame or loss,— He joins the mar - tyr host!

He who, in feal - ty to the truth, And count - ing all the cost, .
He who, with calm, un - daunt - ed will, Ne'er counts the bat - tle lost, .
All these, the mes - sen - gers of God, To ev - 'ry age and coast .

Doth con - se - crate his gen'-rous youth,—He joins the no - ble host!
But, tho' de - feat - ed bat - tles still,—He joins the faith - ful host!

My soul, be on thy guard

Heath. S. M.

GEORGE HEATH, 1781

MASON AND WEBB's Cantica Laudis, 1850

1. My soul, be on thy guard; Ten thous-and foes a-rise; .
 2. O watch, and fight, and pray! The bat-tle ne'er give o'er; .
 3. Ne'er think the vic-t'ry won, Nor lay thine ar-mour down:
 4. Fight on, my soul, till death Shall bring thee to thy God! .

The hosts of sin are press-ing hard To draw thee from the skies.
 Re-new it bold-ly ev-'ry day, And help Di-vine im-plore.
 Thy ar-duous work will not be done Till thou ob-tain thy crown.
 He'll take thee, at thy part-ing breath, Up to his blest a-bode. A-men.

Father, hear the prayer we offer

Stockwell. 8, 7, 8, 7

L. M. WILLIS, 1859

DARIUS ELIOT JONES, 1851

1. Fa-ther, hear the pray'r we of-fer: Not for ease that pray'r shall be;
 2. Not for-ev-er in green pas-tures Do we ask our way to be;
 3. Not for-ev-er by still wa-ters Would we i-dly qui-et stay;
 4. Be our strength in hours of weak-ness; In our wan-d'rings, be our guide;

But for strength, that we may ev-er Live our lives cour-age-ous-ly.
 But the steep and rug-ged path-way May we tread re-joic-ing-ly.
 But would smite the liv-ing foun-tains From the rocks a-long our way.

Father, lead me day by day

JOHN P. HOPPS
Abridged

Lyne. Four 7's
Magdalen Hymns, 1700

1. Fa - ther, lead me day by day, Ev - er in thine own sweet way;
2. When in dan - ger, make me brave; Make me know that thou canst save;
3. When I'm tempted to do wrong, Make me stead - fast, wise and strong;
4. May I do the good I know, Be thy lov - ing child be - low,

Tune from the English Hymnal

Teach me to be pure and true, Show me what I ought to do.
 Keep me safe by thy dear side; Let me in thy love a-bide.
 And when all a-lone I stand, Shield me with thy might-y hand.
 Then at last go home to thee, Ev-er-more thy child to be. A-men.

107 Father in heaven, who lovest all

RUDYARD KIPLING, 1906

Pentecost. L. M.
 WILLIAM BOYD, 1868

1. Fa-ther in heav'n, who lov-est all, O help thy chil-dren when they call;
 2. Teach us to bear the yoke in youth, With stead-fast-ness and care-ful truth;
 3. Teach us to rule our-selves al-way, Con-troll'd and clean-ly night and day;
 4. Teach us to look in all our ends On thee for Judge and not our friends;

That they may build from age to age An un-de-fil-ed her-i-tage.
 That, in our time, thy grace may give The truth where-by the na-tions live.
 That we may bring, if need a-rise, No maim'd or worthless sac-ri-fice.
 That we, with thee, may walk uncow'd By fear or fav-or of the crowd. A-men.

5 Teach us the strength that cannot seek,
 By deed or thought, to hurt the weak;
 That, under thee, we may possess
 Man's strength to comfort man's distress.

6 Teach us delight in simple things,
 And mirth that has no bitter springs,
 Forgiveness free of evil done,
 And love to all men 'neath the sun.

 Bright with thy praise,
 Out of my stony griefs
 Bethel I'll raise;
 So by my woes to be
 Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Nearer to thee!

5 Or if on joyful wing
 Cleaving the sky,
 Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
 Upwards I fly,
 Still all my song shall be,
 Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Nearer to thee!

Lord, for tomorrow and its needs

Just for Today. 8, 4, 8, 4, D.

E. R. WILBERFORCE

H. R. PALMER

1. Lord, for to-mor-row and its needs I do not pray;
 2. Let me no wrong or i-dle word Un-think-ing say;
 3. Let me be slow to do my will, Prompt to o-bey;

Keep me, my God, from stain of sin, Just for to-day.
 Set thou a seal up-on my lips Through all to-day.
 Help me to sac-ri-fice my-self, Just for to-day.

Help me to la-bor ear-nest-ly, And du-ly pray;
 Let me in sea-son, Lord, be grave, In sea-son gay;
 So for to-mor-row and its needs, I do not pray;

ff
 Let me be kind in word and deed, Just for to-day.
 Let me be faith-ful to thy grace, Dear Lord, to-day.
 But keep me, guide me, love me, Lord, Just for to-day. A-men.

3. Take my voice, and let me sing Al - ways, on - ly, for my King.
4. Take my sil - ver and my gold; Not a mite would I with - hold.

CONSECRATION

Take my mo-ments and my days; Let them flow in cease-less praise.
 Take my feet, and let them be Swift and beau-ti-ful for thee.
 Take my lips, and let them be Fill'd with mes-sag-es from thee.
 Take my in-tel-lect, and use Ev-'ry pow'r as thou shalt choose. A-men.

5 Take my will and make it thine;
 It shall be no longer mine.
 Take my heart, it is thine own;
 It shall be thy royal thone.

 At thy feet its treasure-store.
 Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all for thee.

117 Lord, speak to me that I may speak

Hesperus. L. M.

FRANCES R. HAVERGAL, 1872

HENRY BAKER, 1866

1. Lord, speak to me that I may speak, In liv-ing ech-oes of thy tone;
 2. O lead me, Lord, that I may lead The wan-d'ring and the wav'-ring feet;
 3. O strengthen me, that while I stand Firm on the Rock, and strong in thee,
 4. O teach me, Lord, that I may teach The pre-cious things thou dost im-part;

As thou hast sought, so let me seek, Thy err-ing chil-dren lost and lone.
 O feed me, Lord, that I may feed Thy hung'ring ones with man-na sweet.
 I may stretch out a lov-ing hand To wres-tlers with the trou-bled sea.
 And wing my words, that they may reach The hid-den depths of man-y a heart. A-men.

5 O give thine own sweet rest to me,
 That I may speak with soothing power
 A word in season, as from thee,
 To weary ones in needful hour.

6 O fill me with thy fullness, Lord,
 Until my very heart o'erflow
 In kindling thought and glowing word,
 Thy love to tell, thy praise to show.

Now in the days of youth

WALTER J. MATHAMS, 1913

Diademata. S. M. D.
GEORGE J. ELVEY, 1868

1. Now in the days of youth, When life flows fresh and free,
2. Teach us wher-e'er we live, To act as in thy sight,
3. Teach us to love the true, The beau-ti-ful and pure,
4. Spir-it of Christ, do thou Our first bright days in-spire,

Thou Lord of all our hearts and lives We give our-selves to thee;
And do what thou wouldst have us do With ra-di-ant de-light;
And let us not for one short hour An e-vil thought en-dure.
That we may live the life of love And loft-i-est de-sire;

Our fer-vent gift re-ceive, And fit us to ful-fil,
Not choos-ing what is great, Nor spurn-ing what is small,
But give us grace to stand De-cid-ed, brave and strong,
And be by thee pre-pared For lar-ger years to come;

Through all our days, in all our ways, Our Heavenly Fa-ther's will.
But take as from thy hands our tasks And glo-ri-fy them all.
The lov-ers of all ho-ly things, The foes of all things wrong.
And for the life in-ef-fa-ble With-in the Fa-ther's home. A-men.

THE REJOICING HEART

Rejoice, ye pure in heart

EDWARD H. PLUMPTRE, 1865

Marion. S. M. With Refrain

ARTHUR H. MESSITER, 1883

1. Re - joice, ye . pure in heart, Re - joice, give thanks and sing!
 2. Bright youth and snow-crowned age, Strong men and maid - ens meek,
 3. With all the an - gel choirs, With all the saints on earth,

Your fes - tal ban - ner wave on high,—The cross of Christ your King.
 Raise high your free, ex - ult - ing song, God's won-drous prais - es speak.
 Pour out the strains of joy and bliss, True rap - ture, no - blest mirth.

REFRAIN

Re - joice, re - joice, Re-joice, give thanks and sing! A-men.
 Re - joice, Re - joice,

4 With voice as full and strong
 As ocean's surging praise,
 Send forth the hymns our fathers loved,
 The psalms of ancient days.

5 Yes, on through life's long path,
 Still chanting as ye go;
 From youth to age, by night and day,
 In gladness and in woe,

6 Still lift your standard high,
 Still march in firm array,
 As warriors through the darkness toil
 Till dawns the golden day.

7 At last the march shall end,
 The wearied ones shall rest,
 The pilgrims find their Father's house,
 Jerusalem the blest.

He leadeth me, O blessed thought

JOSEPH H. GILMORE, 1862

WILLIAM B. BRADBURY, 1864

1. He lead - eth me: O bless-ed thought! O words with heavenly com-fort fraught:
2. Sometimes 'mid scenes of deep-est gloom, Sometimes where E - den's bow - ers bloom,
3. Lord, I would clasp thy hand in mine, Nor ev - er mur - mur nor re - pine;
4. And when my task on earth is done, When, by thy grace, the vic-t'ry's won,

What-e'er I do, wher-e'er I be, Still 'tis God's hand that lead - eth me.
 By wa - ters calm, o'er trou-bled sea, — Still 'tis his hand that lead - eth me.
 Con-tent, what-ev - er lot I see, Since 'tis my God that lead - eth me.
 E'en death's cold wave I will not flee, Since God through Jor - dan lead - eth me.

REFRAIN

He lead - eth me, he lead - eth me: By his own hand he lead - eth me:

His faith-ful fol-l'wer I would be, For by his hand he lead-eth me. A-men.

Forward! be our watchword

HENRY ALFORD, 1871
ModifiedSt. Theresa. 6, 5, 6, 5, D.
ARTHUR S. SULLIVAN, 1874

1. For-ward! be our watchword, Steps and voic-es joined; Seek the things be-fore us,
2. Glo-ries up-on glo-ries Hath our God pre-pared, By the souls that love him
3. Far o'er yon ho-ri-zon Rise the cit-y towers Where our God a-bid-eth:

Not a look be-hind. Burns the fi-'ry pil-lar At our ar-my's head;
One day to be shared. Eye hath not be-held them, Ear hath nev-er heard,
That fair home is ours. Flash the streets with jas-per, Shine the gates with gold;

REFRAIN

Who shall dream of shrinking, By our Cap-tain led? For-ward out of er-ror,
Nor of these hath ut-tered Tho't or speech a word. For-ward, marching eastward, Flows the glad'ning riv-er Shed-ding joys un-told. Thith-er, on-ward thith-er, Leave be-hind the night; For-ward thro' the darkness, Forward in-to light.

Where the heav'n is bright, Till the veil be lift-ed, Till our faith be sight!
In the Spir-it's might; Pil-grims to your coun-try, For-ward in-to light! A-men.

Come, let us join with faithful souls

WILLIAM G. TARRANT, 1892

Mount Zion. C. M. D.
HORATIO W. PARKER, 1886

1. Come, let us join with faith-ful souls Our song of faith to sing; . .
 2. And faith-ful are the gen-tle hearts To whom the pow'r is giv'n; . .
 3. From step to step it wins its way A-against a world of sin; . .

One broth-er-hood in heart are we, And one our Lord and King. . .
 Of ev-'ry hearth to make a home, Of ev-'ry home a heaven. . .
 Part of the bat-tle-field is won, And part is yet to win. . .

Faith-ful are all who love the truth, And dare the truth to tell; . .
 O might-y host! no tongue can tell The num-bers of its throng; . .
 O Lord of hosts, our faith re-new, And grant us, in thy love, . .

Who steadfast stand at God's right hand, And strive to serve him well.
 No words can sound the mu-sic vast Of its grand bat-tle song.
 To sing the songs of vic-to-ry With faith-ful souls a-bove. A-men.

 From those who walk with sodden eyes, To whom no hopes come near.
 And launch a-against his spir-it's foes The strength which he makes strong. A-men.

162 Our fathers' God, from out whose hand

Composite

Based on J. G. WHITTIER

St. Catherine. Six 8's

HENRI F. HEMY, 1865

Alt. by JAMES G. WALTON, 1871

1. Our fa - thers' God, from out whose hand The cen - turies fall like grains of sand,
 2. O make us, thro' the cen - turies long, In peace se - cure, in jus - tice strong;

We meet to - day, u - nit - ed, free, And loy - al to our land and thee,
 A - round our gift of free - dom draw The safe - guards of thy right - eous law;

To thank thee for the e - ra done, And trust thee for the ope - ning one.
 And, cast in some di - vin - er mold, Let the new cy - cle shame the old! A - men.

Once to every man and nation

JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL, 1845
ArrangedBeecher. 8, 7, 8, 7, D.
JOHN ZUNDEL, 1870

1. Once to ev-'ry man and na-tion Comes the mo-ment to de-cide,
2. Then to side with truth is no-ble, When we share her wretch-ed crust,
3. By the light of burn-ing mar-tyrs Je-sus' bleed-ing feet I track,
4. Though the cause of e-vil pros-per, Yet 'tis truth a-lone is strong;

In the strife of truth with false-hood, For the good or e-vil side;
Ere her cause bring fame and prof-it, And 'tis pros-p'rous to be just;
Toil-ing up new Cal-v'ries ev-er With the cross that turns not back;
Though her por-tion be the scaf-fold, And up-on the throne be wrong,—

Some great cause, God's new Mes-si-ah, Of-f'ring each the bloom or blight,—
Then it is the brave man choos-es, While the cow-ard stands a-side
New oc-ca-sions teach new du-ties, Time makes an-cient good un-couth;
Yet that scaf-fold sways the fu-ture, And be-hind the dim un-known,

And the choice goes by for-ev-er Twixt that dark-ness and that light.
Till the mul-ti-tude make vir-tue Of the faith they had de-nied.
They must up-ward still and on-ward, Who would keep a-breast of truth.
Stand-eth God with-in the shad-ow Keep-ing watch a-bove his own. A-men.

America, rejoice!

ROSAMOND KIMBALL, 1918

To National Hymn
(On opposite page)

- 1 Hark to the sound, it rings from sea to sea!
 Hark to the call, the call of Liberty!
 Deep, thunderous notes of Freedom's mighty voice!
 Rise, sons of earth! America, rejoice!
- 2 Behold the nations joined to conquer wrong!
 Fierce was the struggle, dark the night and long.
 From battle's din, there dawns another day.
 Children of Freedom! Open wide the way!
- 3 America! Beneath thy flag we stand!
 Thy sons and daughters born in this free land,
 Thee will we serve, lift Freedom's torch divine.
 America! Through us, thy light shall shine!
- 4 Lift up thine eyes! Behold the shining throng!
 Thousands are joining in the world's new song!
 Maidens and youths, in service lead the way.
 Hail, Freemen, hail! Humanity's New Day.

To America

1 God bless our native land,
Firm may she ever stand
Through storm and night!
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of wind and wave,
Do thou our country save,
By thy great might!

2 For her our prayers shall rise,
To God above the skies,
On him we wait;
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guarding with watchful eye,
To thee aloud we cry,
God save the statel

3 Lord of all truth and right,
In whom alone is might,
On thee we call!
And may the nations see
That men should brothers be,
And form one family!
God save us all! Amen.

Let war be learned no lon - ger, Let strife and tu - mult cease,
Let all that now u - nites us More sweet and last - ing prove,

All earth his bless - ed king - dom, The Lord and Prince of Peace.
A clos - er bond of un - ion, In a blest land of love. A-men.

The light pours down from heaven

Missionary Hymn. 7, 6, 7, 6, D.

LOWELL MASON, 1829

JOSEPH GOSTICK, 1848

1. The light pours down from heav - en, And en - ters where it may;
2. Then let each wait - ing spir - it En - joy the vi - sion bright;

The eyes of all earth's chil - dren Are cheered with one bright day.
And spread the truth of heav - en As wide as heav'n's own light;

So let the mind's true sun - shine Be spread o'er earth as free,
Till earth be - comes God's tem - ple; And ev - 'ry hu - man heart

And fill all hu - man spir - its, As wa - ters fill the sea.
Shall join in one great serv - ice, Each hap - py in his part. A - men.

Thy grace impart

Composite: based on
JOHN G. WHITTIER, 1807-1892

Palestrina. 8, 8, 8, 4
Arranged from PALESTRINA, 1515-1594

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

1. Thy grace im - part! In time to be Shall one great tem - ple rise to thee, —
2. White flowers of love its walls shall climb, Soft bells of peace shall ring its chime,
3. A sweet - er song shall then be heard, Con - fess - ing, in a world's ac - cord,
4. That song shall swell from shore to shore, One hope, one faith, one love re - store

The church our broad hu - man - i - ty. . . Al - le - lu - ia!
Its days shall all be ho - ly time. . . Al - le - lu - ia!
The in - ward Christ, the liv - ing Word. . . Al - le - lu - ia!
The seam - less robe that Je - sus wore. . . Al - le - lu - ia! A - men.

City of God, how broad and far

SAMUEL JOHNSON, 1860

Beulah. C. M.
GEORGE M. GARRETT, 1889

1. Cit - y of God, how broad and far Out - spread thy walls sub - lime!
 2. One ho - ly Church, one arm - y strong, One stead - fast high in - tent,
 3. How pure - ly hath thy speech come down From man's pri - me - val youth;

The true thy char - tered free - men are Of ev - 'ry age and clime.
 One work - ing band, one har - vest song, One King om - nip - o - tent.
 How grand - ly hath thine em - pire grown Of free - dom, love and truth! A - men.

4 How gleam thy watchfires through the night
 With never-fainting ray!
 How rise thy towers, serene and bright,
 To meet the dawning day!

Lamp of our feet

BERNARD BARTON, 1826
AbridgedNox Præcessit. C. M.
J. BAPTISTE CALKIN, 1875

1. Lamp of our feet, where - by we trace Our path when wont to stray;
 2. Bread of our souls, where - on we feed, True man - na from on high;
 3. Word of the ev - er - liv - ing God, Life of his glo - rious Son;
 4. Lord, grant us all a - right to learn The wis - dom it im - parts;

Stream from the fount of heav'n - ly grace, Brook by the travel - er's way;
 Our guide and chart, wherein we read Of realms be - yond the sky;
 With - out thee how could earth be trod, Or heav'n it - self be won?
 And to its heav'n - ly teach - ing turn, With sim - ple, child - like hearts. A - men.

193 O thou whose feet have climbed life's hill

LOUIS F. BENSON, 1894

Dundee. C. M.
Scottish Psalter, 1615

1. O thou whose feet have climb'd life's hill, And trod the path of youth,
2. Who learn of thee, the truth shall find; Who fol - low, gain the goal:
3. A - wake the pur - pose high which strives, And, fall - ing, stands a - gain;
4. Thy life the bond of fel - low - ship, Thy love the law that rules;

Our Mas - ter and our Broth - er still, Now lead us in - to truth.
With rev - erence crown the ear - nest mind, And speak with - in the soul.
Con - firm the will of ea - ger lives To quit themselves like men:
Thy Name, pro - claim'd by ev - 'ry lip, The Mas - ter of our schools. A - men.

Hushed was the evening hymn

JAMES D. BURNS, 1857

Samuel. 6, 6, 6, 6, 8, 8
ARTHUR S. SULLIVAN, 1874

1. Hushed was the eve - ning hymn, The tem - ple courts were dark;
2. The old man, meek and mild, The priest of Is - rael slept;
3. O give me Sam - uel's ear, The o - pen ear, O Lord,

The lamp was burn - ing dim Be - fore the sa - cred ark;
His watch the tem - ple child, The lit - tle Le - vite kept,
A - live and quick to hear Each whis - per of thy word:

When sud - den - ly a voice di - vine rang thro' the si - lence of the shrine.
And what from E - li's sense was sealed, The Lord to Hannah's son re - vealed.
Like him to an - swer at thy call, And to o - bey thee first of all. A-men.

4 O give me Samuel's heart,
A lowly heart that waits,
When in thy house thou art,
Or watches at thy gates.
By day and night, a heart that still Moves at the breathing of thy will.

5 O give me Samuel's mind,
A sweet, un murmuring faith,
Obedient and resigned
To thee in life and death;
That I may read with child-like eyes
Truths that are hidden from the wise.

Deo Grätias. 6, 7, 6, 7, 6, 6, 6, 6

Tr. CATHERINE WINKWORTH, 1858

JOHANN CRUGER, 1647

May be sung in unison

Harmonized by FELIX MENDELSSOHN, 1809-1847

1. Now thank we all our God, With heart, and hands, and voice - es,
2. O may this boun - teous God Thro' all our life be near us!

Who won - drous things hath done, In whom his world re - joi - ces;
With ev - er - joy - ful hearts And bless - ed peace to cheer us;

Who from our moth - er's arms Hath blessed us on our way
And keep us in his grace, And guide us when per - plexed,

With count - less gifts of love, And still is ours to - day.
And free us from all ills In this world and the next. A-men.

O Father, thou who givest all

JOHN HAYNES HOLMES

Rivaulx. L. M.
JOHN B. DYKES, 1866

1. O Fa-ther, thou who giv - est all The boun-ty of thy per-fect love,
2. We thank thee for the grace of home, For moth-er's love and fa-ther's care;
3. For eyes to see and ears to hear, For hands to serve and arms to lift,
4. For faith to con - quer doubt and fear, For love to an - swer ev-'ry call,

We thank thee that up-on us fall Such ten-der blessings from a-bove.
For friends and teachers — all who come Our joys and hopes and fears to share.
For shoulders broad and strong to bear, For feet to run on er-rands swift.
For strength to do, and will to dare, We thank thee, O thou Lord of all. A-men.

For all the blessings of the year

ALBERT H. HUTCHINSON, 1909

Almsgiving. 8, 8, 8, 4
JOHN B. DYKES, 1875

1. For all the bless-ings of the year, For all the friends we hold so dear;
2. For life and health, those common things Which ev-'ry day and hour brings;
3. For love of thine which nev - er tires, Which all our bet - ter tho't in-spires,

For peace on earth, both far and near, We thank thee, Lord.
For home, where our af - fec - tion clings, We thank thee, Lord.
And warms our lives with heav'n - ly fires, We thank thee, Lord. A - men.

Tr. JOHN M. NEALE, 1852; alt. 1861

To be sung in unison

Veni Emmanuel. Six 8's

Adapted by THOMAS HELMORE, 1854

From "A French Missal."

1. O come, O come, Em - man - u - el, And ran - som cap - tive Is - ra - el;
 2. O come, thou Day - spring, come and cheer Our spir - its by thine ad - vent here;
 3. O come, O come, thou Lord of might! Who to thy tribes on Si - nai's height,

That mourns in lone - ly ex - ile here, Un - til the Son of God ap - pear.
 Dis - perse the gloom - y clouds of night, And death's dark shadows put to flight.
 In an - cient times didst give the law, In cloud, and maj - es - ty, and awe.

Re - joice! Re - joice! Em - man - u - el Shall come to thee, O Is - ra - el! A - men.

Watchman, tell us of the night

JOHN BOWRING, 1825
Antiphonal, if desired

Watchman. Eight 7's
LOWELL MASON, 1830

1. Watch-man, tell us of the night, What its signs of prom - ise are.
2. Watch-man, tell us of the night, High - er yet that star as - cends.
3. Watch-man, tell us of the night, For the morn - ing seems to dawn.

Trav - eller, o'er yon moun-tain's height See that glo - ry-beam-ing star.
Trav - eller, bless - ed - ness and light, Peace and truth its course por-tends.
Trav - eller, dark-ness takes its flight, Doubt and ter - ror are with-drawn.

Watch-man, doth its beau-teous ray Aught of hope or joy fore-tell?
Watch-man, will its beams a - lone Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Watch-man, let thy wan-d'ring cease, Hie thee to thy qui - et home.

Trav-eller, yes, it brings the day, Prom-ised day of Is - ra - el.
Trav-eller, a - ges are its own, See! it bursts o'er all the earth.
Trav-eller, lo! the Prince of Peace, Lo! the Son of God is come! A - men.

It came upon the midnight clear

EDMUND H. SEARS, 1840
Abridged

Carol. C. M. D.
RICHARD S. WILLIS, 1850

1. It came up - on the mid - night clear, That glo - rious song of old, .
2. Still through the clo - ven skies they come, With peaceful wings un - furled;
3. And ye, be - neath life's crush - ing load Whose forms are bend - ing low, .
4. For, lo! the days are hast - ning on By prophet bards fore - told, .

From an - gels bend - ing near the earth, To touch their harps of gold:
And still their heav'nly mu - sic floats O'er all the wea - ry world:
Who toil a - long the climb - ing way, With pain - ful steps and slow, -
When with the ev - er - cir - cling years Comes round the age of gold:

'Peace on the earth, good - will to men, From heav'n's all - gra - cious King.'
A - bove its sad and low - ly plains They bend on hov'r - ing wing,
Look now; for glad and gold - en hours Come swift - ly on the wing:
When peace shall o - ver all the earth Its an - cient splendors fling,

The world in sol - emn still - ness lay To hear the an - gels sing.
And ev - er o'er its Ba - bel sounds The bless - ed an - gels sing.
O rest be - side the wea - ry road, And hear the an - gels sing!
And the whole world give back the song Which now the an - gels sing. A - men.

Christians, lo, the star appeareth

JAMES A. BLAISDELL, 1900

Trust. 8, 7, 8, 7
FELIX MENDELSSOHN, 1840

1. Chris-tians, lo, the star ap-pear-eth; Lo, 'tis yet Mes-si-ah's day;
2. Where a life is spent in ser-vice Walking where the Mas-ter trod,
3. Who-so bears his broth-er's bur-den, Who-so shares an-oth-er's woe,

Still with trib-ute-treas-ure la-den, Come the wise men on their way.
There is scattered myrrh most fragrant For the bless-ed Christ of God.
Brings his frank-in-cense to Je-sus With the men of long a-go. A-men.

4 When we soothe earth's weary children
Tending best the least of them,
'Tis the Lord himself we worship
Bringing gold to Bethlehem.

Calm on the listening ear of night

EDMUND H. SEARS, 1834

Gould. C. M.
JOHN E. GOULD

1. Calm, on the lis-t'ning ear of night, Come heav'n's me-lo-dious strains,
2. Ce-les-tial choirs, from courts a-bove, Shed sa-cred glo-ries there;
3. The an-sw'ring hills of Pal-es-tine Send back the glad re-ply;
4. O'er the blue depths of Gal-i-lee There comes a ho-li-er calm;

CHRISTMAS

 And an-gels, with their spark-ling lyres, Make mu - sic on the air.
 And greet, from all their ho - ly heights, The Dayspring from on high.
 And Shar-on waves, in sol - emn praise, Her si - lent groves of palm. A-men.

5 'Glory to God!' the sounding skies
 Loud with their anthems ring;
 'Peace to the earth, good-will to men,
 From heaven's eternal King!'

6 Light on thy hills, Jerusalem!
 The Prince of Peace is born!
 And bright, on Bethlehem's joyous plains,
 Breaks the first Christmas morn.

210 While shepherds watched their flocks

NAHUM TATE, 1700

St. Martin's. C. M.
 W. TANSUR, 1740

1. While shep - herds watch'd their flocks by night, All seat - ed on the ground,
 2. 'Fear not,' said he, for might-y dread Had siez'd their trou-bled mind;
 3. 'To you, in Da - vid's town, this day Is born of Da-vid's line,
 4. 'The heav'n - ly babe you there shall find To hu - man view dis-play'd,

The an - gel of the Lord came down, And glo - ry shone a-round.
 'Glad ti-dings of great joy I bring To you and all man-kind.
 A Sav-iour, who is Christ the Lord; And this shall be the sign:
 All mean-ly wrapt in swath-ing bands, And in a man-ger laid.' A-men.

5 Thus spake the seraph: and forthwith
 Appeared a shining throng
 Of angels praising God, who thus Addressed their joyful song:

'All glory be to God on high,
 And to the earth be peace;
 Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
 Begin and never cease.'

Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming

Traditional

Tr. by Dr. TH. BAKER

1 Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming
From tender stem hath sprung,
Of Jesse's lineage coming
As men of old have sung.
It came, a flow'et bright
Amid the cold of winter
When half-spent was the night.

2 Isaiah 'twas foretold it,
The Rose I have in mind.
With Mary we behold it
The tender mother kind,
To shew God's love aright
She gave to men a Saviour
When half-spent was the night.

1 Silent night! peaceful night!
All things sleep, shepherds keep Watch on Bethlehem's silent hill,
And unseen, while all is still,
Angels watch above,
Angels watch above.

2 Bright the star shines afar,
Guiding travelers on their way,
Who their gold and incense bring,
Offerings to the promised king,
Child of David's line,
Child of David's line.

3 Light around! joyous sound!
Angel voices wake the air;
'Glory be to God in heaven;
Peace on earth to you is given;
Christ, the Saviour is come,
Christ, the Saviour, is come!'

 3. What is this that they are tell-ing, Sing-ing in the qui-et street?
 4. Words to bring us great-er glad-ness, Tho' our hearts from care are free;

While the stars in heav-en glis-ten Hear the news of Je-sus' birth.
 Still each year thro' mid-night shad-ows, It is heard in ev-'ry town.
 While their voic-es high are swell-ing, What sweet words do they re-peat?
 Words to chase a-way our sad-ness, Cheerless tho' our hearts may be. A-men.

5 'Praise to God!' The angels' chorus
 Rings through all the earth again.
 Sweetly sounds the echo o'er us,
 'Peace on earth, good-will to men.'

6 Little children, wake and listen!
 Songs are ringing through the earth;
 While the stars in heaven glisten,
 Hear the news of Jesus' birth.

Let the round world keep tri - umph And all that is there - in;

From death to life e - ter - nal, From earth un - to the sky,
And, lis't'ning to his ac - cents, May hear, so calm and plain,
Let all things seen and un - seen Their notes to - geth - er blend;

Our Christ hath bro't us o - ver With hymns of vic - to - ry.
His own 'All hail!' and, hear - ing, May raise the vic - tor strain.
For Christ the Lord is ris - en, Our joy that hath no end. A-men.

Come sing with holy gladness

Composite

Greenland. 7, 6, 7, 6, D.

(These words may be sung instead of those set in the tune on opposite page, if preferred.)

- 1 Come sing with holy gladness,
High alleluias sing!
Lift up your hearts and voices
With new awakened Spring.
Sing, youths and gentle maidens,
Your hymn of praise to-day,
With old men and with children,
In sweet according lay.

- 2 The time of Resurrection,
Earth sings it all abroad,—
The passover of gladness,
The passover of God!

The sign of life eternal
Is writ on earth and sky,—
The hope forever vernal,
Of life the victory.

- 3 Now let the heavens be joyful,
The seas their bright waves swell;
Let the round world keep triumph,
With all that therein dwell!
Now let the seen and unseen
In one glad anthem blend;
Let all-our hearts be risen
To life that hath no end!

Lo, the earth is risen again

SAMUEL LONGFELLOW, 1876

Abridged

Monkland. Four 7's

Arr. by JOHN B. WILKES, 1861

In moderate time

1. Lo, the earth is ris'n a - gain From the win-ter's bond and pain!
 2. Once a - gain the word comest true, Lo, he mak-eth all things new!
 3. How our hearts leap with the spring! How our spir - its soar and sing!
 4. Change, then, mourn-ing in - to praise, And, for dirg - es, an-thems raise:

Bring we leaf and flow'r and spray To a - dorn this ho - ly day.
 Now the dark, cold days are o'er, Light and glad-ness are be - fore.
 Light is vic - tor o - ver gloom, Life tri - um-ph'ant o'er the tomb.
 All our fears and griefs shall be Lost in im - mor - tal - i - ty. A-men.

O day of light and gladness

FREDERICK L. HOSMER, 1903

Lancashire. 7, 6, 7, 6, D.

HENRY SMART, 1836

With animation

1. O day of light and glad - ness, Of proph - e - cy and song,
 2. Earth feels the sea - son's joy - ance; From moun - tain range to sea
 3. O Lord of life e - ter - nal, To thee our hearts up - raise

What tho'ts with - in us wak - en, What hal - lowed mem'-ries throng!
 The tides of life are flow - ing Fresh, man - i - fold and free.
 The Eas - ter song of glad - ness, The Pass - o - ver of praise.

The soul's ho - ri - zon wid - ens, Past, pres - ent, fu - ture blend;
 In val - ley and on up - land, By for - est path-ways dim,
 Thine are the man - y man - sions, The dead die not to thee,

And ris - es on our vi - sion The life that hath no end.
 All na - ture lifts in cho - rus The res - ur - rec - tion hymn.
 Who fill - est from thy ful - ness Time and e - ter - ni - ty. A-men.

The Light along the ages

WILLIAM G. TARRANT

Aurelia. 7, 6, 7, 6, D.
SAMUEL S. WESLEY, 1864

1. The Light a - long the a - ges Shines bright-er as it goes;
2. We thank thee, O our Fa - ther For ev - 'ry gift of thine;
3. Wher - ev - er good - ness reign - eth The soul of Christ lives on,

From age to age more glo - rious Its ra - diant splen - dor grows.
All speak a - like the boun - ty Of ten - der - ness di - vine;
And ev - 'ry Christ-like spir - it Shall rise where he hath gone:

Man's life, be - gun so low - ly, Now soars to heav'n a - bove,
But ev - 'ry gift sur - pass - ing, This won - drous gift we own,— Earth's dust hath served its mis - sion; Hence-forth the soul is free,

To share in life e - ter - nal The joys of end - less love!
The Son of Man is ris - en To dwell be - fore thy throne!
And thro' the heights of be - ing As - cends, O God, to thee! A - men.

Jesus Christ is risen to-day

Latin, 14th cent.; Tr. TATE AND BRADY, 1698
ModernizedWorgan. Four 7's. With Alleluia
Altered from Lyra Davidica, 1708

1. Je - sus Christ is ris'n to - day, Al - - le - lu - ia!
 2. Hymns of praise then let us sing Al - - le - lu - ia!
 3. Sing we to our God a - bove Al - - le - lu - ia!

Our tri - um - phant ho - ly day, Al - - le - lu - ia!
 Un - to Christ, our heav'nly King, Al - - le - lu - ia!
 Praise e - ter - nal as his love; Al - - le - lu - ia!

Who did once up - on the cross, Al - - le - lu - ia!
 Who en - dured the cross and grave, Al - - le - lu - ia!
 Praise him, all ye heav'n - ly throng, Al - - le - lu - ia!

Suf - fer to re - deem our loss. Al - - le - lu - ia!
 Sin - ners to re - deem and save. Al - - le - lu - ia!
 Prais - es to our God be - long. Al - - le - lu - ia! A - men.

Come, ye faithful, raise the strain

JOHN of Damascus, 749
Tr. JOHN M. NEALE, 1853
Translation revised

St. Kevin. 7, 6, 7, 6, D.
ARTHUR S. SULLIVAN, 1872

1. Come, ye faith-ful, raise the strain Of tri-umph-ant glad-ness!
2. 'Tis the spring of souls to-day: Christ hath burst his pris-on,
3. Now the queen of sea-sons, bright With the day of splen-dor,
4. 'Al-le-lu-ia!' now we cry To our King su-per-nal,

God hath bro't his Is-ra-el In-to joy from sad-ness;
His tri-umph-ant spir-it now As a sun hath ris-en;
With the roy-al feast of feasts, Comes its joy to ren-der;
Who, tri-umph-ant o-ver death, Rose to life e-ter-nal;

Loosed from Pha-raoh's bit-ter yoke Ja-cob's sons and daugh-ters,
All the win-ter of our griefs Long and dark, is fly-ing
Comes to glad Je-ru-sa-lem, Who, with true af-fec-tion,
'Al-le-lu-ia,' now we sing God the Fa-ther prais-ing;

Led them with un-moist-ened foot Thro' the Red Sea wa-ters.
From his light, to whom we give Laud and praise un-dy-ing.
Wel-comes in un-wea-ried strains Day of res-ur-rec-tion.
'Al-le-lu-ia' yet a-gain, Hearts and voic-es rais-ing. A-men.

Ten thousand times ten thousand

HENRY ALFORD, 1867

Abridged

Alford. 7, 6, 8, 6, D.

JOHN B. DYKES, 1875

1. Ten thou - sand times ten thou - sand In spark - ling rai - ment bright,
 2. What rush of al - le - lu - ias Fills all the earth and sky!

The ar - mies of the ran-somed saints Throng up the steepes of light:
 What ring - ing of a thou-sand harps Be-speaks the tri - umph nigh!

'Tis fin - ished, all is fin - ished, Their fight with death and sin: . .
 O day, for which cre - a - tion And all its tribes were made; .

THE FINAL TRIUMPH
Lead, kindly Light

JOHN HENRY NEWMAN, 1833

Lux Benigna. 10, 4, 10, 4, 10, 10

JOHN B. DYKES, 1865

1. Lead, kind-ly Light, a - mid th' en-cir-cling gloom, Lead thou me on!
2. I was not ev - er thus, nor pray'd that thou Shouldst lead me on;
3. So long thy pow'r hath blest me, sure it still Will lead me on

The night is dark, and I am far from home, Lead thou me on! .
I loved to choose and see my path; but now . Lead thou me on! .
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and tor-rent, till . The night is gone;

Keep thou my feet! I do not ask to see . . .
I loved the gar - ish day; and, spite of fears, . .
And with the morn those an - gel fa - ces smile, . .

The dis - tant scene; one step e - nough for me. .
Pride ruled my will: re - mem - ber not . past years.
Which I have loved long since, and lost . a - while. A - men.
